and commanding perhaps than those of any man of the age in which he lived, a vigorous, comprebensive, and controlling mind, dominions vast .almost unlimited; whose will was law to seventy million subjects, and whose boundless ambition spurred him forward to universal empire, such an one seized by the arm of death, and stretched in his ancestral balls a cold and powerless lump of clay, is suggestive of salutary reflections to the moralist, and to the statesman philosopher of speculations innumerable.

When the announcement first was made that the giant despot was no more, it was attended by circumstances which induced in many minds the suspicion that some foul means had been employed to accelerate his end. It was remembered each had died a violent death, that in fact the is soiled in every page by the record of inhuman butcheries and vile intrigues for the throne. No by human hands to his great account. But these that the Emperor breathed his last in the presence of a household sedulous in the performance rounded by the sorrows and sobs of an affection- their power in the Black Sea. ate family. One incident connected with his closing moments affords a beautiful relief to the from his medical attendant the communication

I could depart with you, if it were only possible." so that you may be the centre of the whole moment approaches."

Nicholas was born at St. Petersburg, on the 7th of July, 1796. He was the third son of the

" In July, 1817, he married Charlotte Louisa,

" A vast conspiracy, composed of two classes countenance calm, though pale—and the vene- timid belief in witchcraft than to a rational and then pursued our way to the Grand Falls; ration with which every Russ regards the faith. It is Fetichism, not religion." person of his Sovereign-prevailed. Most of the soldiers kneeled before their master, and grounded their arms in token of submission. They say in St. Petersburg that while he harangued them, one of the conspirators tour destruction." " flushopes of the Liberal and old Russian party having been thus quenched, Nicholas found tie Russian Empire. "The two ruling passions of the Emperor's life appear to have been to consolidate and extend despotic institutions, not only within his own dominions, but in neighbouring countries, ercise a protectorate over the Christian subjects of the Porte may be contrasted with his persecuthe sacred Scriptures. He never recognized the sovereignty of Louis Philippe; and by that astute policy for which Russian diplomacy is distin-

His foes' derision and his subjects' blame. He steels to death from anguish and from sheme." from his mother."

from his medical attendant the communication that he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iiil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iiil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable to a parathat he was dangerously iil, and liable that he was dangerously iil, and hable to a paralysis of the lungs, he calmly and collectedly took

The old chapel at Habitant, together with its the sacrament, took leave of the Empress, their much fear that the necessity of his position would they pass. These spoils are committed to the ture's phenomena. Transfixed, for all the tire vice of God, worthy the desires of the people, high pulpit and galleries for which it has long the sacrament, took leave of the Empress, their force him to a continuance of hostilities while main stream, where, held for a time in solution, we had at our disposal, to the spot, we regaled and the extent and exigencies of our Mission. been famous, is happily condemned at last; and children and grandchildren, kissed each, and blessed each one with a firm voice.

Subsequently he said to the Empress, "Do go now and take a little rest, I beg of you." She was a subsequently he said to the Empress, and the each of the intervale or alluvium, of the Islands, and marginal formations, and from the next day I returned in company with we are now just commencing a new building in of the Islands, and marginal formations, as the village of the village of the village of the prospect of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing, to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the day ensuing to Carleton, the place of my amile north-east of the position of the Islands, and the east day I returned in company with the value of the village of the village of the village of the vi answered, "Let me remain with you; I would wearing one day a crown at Constantinople, he with more sobriety in its natural course. But it may consent to relinquish the hope of mounting has left its blessing behind it, as the farmer well To this the Emperor replied, "No; you must the ancestral throne at St. Petersburg, but that knows, when he gathers in his crop of hay and soul-subduing emotion, as in the presence of naremain here on earth. Take care of your health, glittering object once hopelessly placed beyond other productions. Owing to the long drought, ture's God, while I beheld (to me.) this novel his grasp, it requires no uncommon powers of on our arrival at Fredericton we found that the display of His power! I have been preceded Horton and Cornwallis Circuit. family. Go now; I will send for you when the vaticination to predict for Russia a period of in- Steamers could not run above this City. The depicted in the following extract:-

all in vain. The populance began to sympathise Emperor—the son born after his father's acces- festing much uneasiness, it was thought best to firm tone, 'Return to your ranks-obey-down of his ecclesiastical functions. The religion of upon your knees!' The energy of his voice-his the Russian is, in fact, more nearly akin to a purposed,—to give you an account of the success like aspect. The line of demarcation was drawn however, of a female friend, we were accommodified to this fund; and independent of the 250 purposed,—to give you an account of the success that the sole and absolute master of the gigan which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. In the sole and absolute master of the gigan which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. In the sole and absolute master of the gigan which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. In the sole and absolute master of the gigan which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. In the sole and absolute master of the gigan which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. which has attended our efforts in the New Bruns. at last—and now exists, as a living evidence, that wick District; but more specially those Circuits trickery sometimes, gets the ascendant over the proper place, an increase of the year also. William to the proper place, an increase of the year also. Woodstock, March 19th, 1855. where I have been personally engaged.

New Brunswick.

LETTER FROM REV. R. KNIGHT. and the fire of musketry completed the work of Societies.

through the Ministers on the several stations, I rity at a costly price.

rich, varied, and ploturesque in nature. The flon at the falls, but my expectation—though I with an unusual degree of liberty, in setting be- in their places on the other occasion. noble river itself, receiving its fifteen hundred know not for what reason had not been raised fore the people "the things belonging to their We have also been engaged in a general effort miles of tributary streams—now hemmed in by beyond the beholding a collection of erections peace"—baptized some children and returned to repair, improve, and adorn our Chapel, on this the following extracts:

attention of Europe. A mighty potentate whom attention of Europe. The eyelid droops over the outer the one representing the geometry, and the other golden. The new points are also at the following the potential attention of Europe. The eyelid droops over the outer the one representing the geometry, and the other golden. The new points are also at the following that the following the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a melancholy betraying the potential attention of the eye with a me already the cares of a more advanced age. His lor some short time time significant time time significant time time state and his pleasing mouth is not without swe mess, and his pleasing mouth is not without swe mess, and his pattern from its wonted flow. The course holdings which, would induce the collection in pattern from before Selastopol, of attendance so good; while the collection in pattern from before Selastopol, of under the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby an additional form of grandeur is created. The course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the course the stouter sex to "good works," and now all hereby and the stouter pleasing mouth is not without swe ness, and his parties seem pleased with the confection in the confec or the portraits of the Empress Catherine; but makes a graceful curve, and hence, ever and the question who—and who, lives there. or the portraits of the sampless can again, the noble stream excites the admiration I was indeed most agreeably disappointed. beneath that air of kindness, almost always conferred by beauty, youth, and German blood, it ferred by beauty, youth, and German blood, it forms its bed. Hereby, too, is formed an almost can hardly be conceived. The large sheet of is impossible not to recognize a force of dissillar and the large sheet of lation that terrifies one in so young a man. This endiess variety of landscape—the scenery changwater leading from the falls to the Madawaska; lation that terrines one in so young a man. Inis ing every few minutes. While the St. John is all the way, as I am informed, bordered by a trait is doubtless the seal of destiny, and makes ing every iew minutes. While the way, as I am informed, bordered by a expected but few present, the people being busily mearly equal to one half of the outlay, was the the great highway through which the hundreds tract of country combining strong upland, with throne. His voice has a melodious tone, a rare of thousands worth of productions annually pass, a large portion of alluvial soil, forming an easy, thing in his family, and a gift he has received it has been from the earliest period of its exist-collecting link with the Canadas, - seems, nay, ence bearing along in its bosom an earthly trea- but in reality promises, to make the at present, The accession of Alexander Nicolaivitch has sure, leaving it here, and there, and all but little Town of Victoria, a place, largely deserving. The accession of Alexander Nicolaiviten has been hailed with jubilant acclaim by many who been hailed with jubilant acclaim by many who everywhere, and hence, from time immemorial, he Briton stirring name, which has been given been hailed with jubilant acclaim by many who regarded it as the sure precursor of peace. Mild regarded it as the sure precursor of peace. Mild regarded it as the sure precursor of peace. Mild regarded it as the sure precursor of peace. Mild regarded it. The now low, and then loud, murmurings of the proceeds of the former year; and pearance, but will offer advantages to both min-side, and in order afterwards to carry on their and pacific in his principles, and all along oppos- of this productive kind of vegetative soil may be the Falls had already reached my ear. I have that his father, grandfather, and greatgrandfather, and greatgrand the close of his father's reign, it has been gene-streams. On the main channel these deposits Falls of Niagara, no sooner catches their hoarse history of Russia through the last two centuries rally supposed that the new Emperor would sig- are formed into many islands of varied extent, and deep rumbling sound, than he looses all nalise his own inauguration by a reversal of the richness and value of which are seen by the desire for everything around intimates still more rapid pulpit and pews, has made it a pretty and compolicy of his ancestors. The dying advice of his almost countless stacks of hay which meet the side of the mighty cataract, amid its foaming growth. The cause of Methodism is taking deep for table place; and if the trustees of many of our effect. On the 10th they threw 400 shells into marvel then had the insatiable Czar been hurried father, too, as reported to the Times by its Paris eye of the traveller, in the autumn of every year. spray, and stunning roar, absorbs all his passion. correspondent, would seem sufficient to strengthen Somewhat resembling the annual overflow of the This I can realily believe, in view of the work of God there are events of comdoubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated. It is believed to be true doubts are dissipated above them nearer to the day the Grand Dukes arrived, no attack of the day the Grand Dukes arrived. on his death-bed, and in presence of the Empress spring season of every year, and leaves behind vicintiy of the Grand Falls.

vaticination to predict for Russia a period of intestine tumult. Glance at the state of parties as next morning we had to take the stage, and ramwith powers of description far outreaching mine, ble along more slowly and less romantically—but have placed their views of these Falls, in graphithis Circuit closed at an early date of the present and the ministers of the future will find them, I the French Admiral Bruat, of Feb. 24th, states, this Circuit closed at an early date of the present and the ministers of the future will find them, I "The events of the last two years would seem through the blessing of God we reached the Emperor Paul, by his second wife, Mary of to indicate that at present the Muscovite, or village of Woodstock, almost arrived to the dig-Sclavonic party, is in the ascendant. Constanding of a town, in safety, and found from our tine, it is pretty well ascertained, is the favorite friends there what proverbially obtains,—a most the eldest daughter of Frederick William of Prussia, and sister of the present King. Four of the most important offices of the state are held of country over which we have to travel in outpouring of the Holy Spirit, for this we now following version of a portion of the despatch this time Nicholas had little expectation of obtaining the Imperial Crown; but in the year of the Asiatic department of foreign affairs, the deep solemnity was resting on the minds of the 1825, his eldest brother, the Emperor Alexander, died at Taganrog, in the Crimea, it is supposed the departments of the state. This man, who different places, it was deemed advisable to divide by poison. The next heir to the throne was the never mingles with society, and whose name may our forces. Hence it was decided that Bro. Grand Duke Constantine, who was then at War- be unknown to many who have for years moved Allen and myself should proceed to the Andover saw, and Nicholas hastened to take the oath of in the courtly circles of St. Petersburg, possesses, Circuits, to assist Bro Gaskin, in holding the fidelity. But his brother had already renounced in virtue of his office, and of his having generally meetings at Gages, Tobique, and the Grand the Crown in a paper which he had secretly sign- filled the place of Count Nesselrode during the Falls. And Bro. Johnson remained to assist Bro. of on the occasion of his marriage with the occasional absences of that statesman, an unc- Duncan to attend in the meantime, at Northdaughter of a private Polish gentleman. Nicho- qualled knowledge of all the foreign relations of hampton, and Williamstown, and subsequently Lis, with expressions of regret, then ascended Russia, and a mastery over the minds of the to concentrate our forces at Woodstock, Victoria the throne; and now came a terrible struggle, employes. Another important member of the Corner, and Jacksontown. The next morning Sclavonic party is Count Pratasoff, who is at Bro. Allen, and myself started for Gages. Here "A vast conspiracy, composed of two classes —the enthusiastic lovers of liberty and the old Russian party, the supporters of Constantine—was formed; but elements so discordant could not love set love there. The traces were consulted.

The traces were conspiracy, composed of two classes, the head of the Synod. Not less influential, from character and position, is Count Bloudoff, who, besides being President of the Department of Laws, and a member of the Council for the not long act together. The troops were called Affairs of Poland, presided over the second seldom, if ever, witnessed. The flashes of lightupon to swear allegiance to the new Emperor; section of the late Emperor's Chancellerie ning, were peculiarly vivid, and quick in their but they had previously sworn fidelity to Con- Privee, Menschikoff too, is Minister of Marine, succession-while the rain at short intervals stantine, and not understanding the reason for This brief and imperfect resume may suffice to came down in torrents. Consequently, as but the change of masters, they remained faithful to indicate to what an extent the reins of Govern- few persons could attend, we had to defer our the oath which they had taken. When the cere- ment at St. Petersburg are in the hands of the object to some future occasion. We held a relimony commenced, the officers stepped out of Sclavonic faction. Should Alexander evince gious service, rendered specially solemn by the their ranks, and denounced Nicholas as an any disposition to deviate from the policy latterly pealing thunder which literally shook the buildusurper, and declared that he held Constantine pursued by his father, the partisans of Constan- ing when we had assembled, while the bright and in confinement. The soldiers followed their tine command the garrison of the Cabinet. Nor continuous flashes of electric fire, made of our officers, with cries of "Constantine and the will it be difficult to find a pretext for supersed- artificial lights a mere mockery. The storm still constitution." Milarodovitch, the Governor of ing the elder brother in favour of the younger. raged with unabated fury. Some had to return St. Petersburg, and the veteran favourites of the Though it is certain that Nicholas was averse to the distance of three miles. And after remainarmy, were sent to parley with them. The arch- trench on the rights of his eldest born, the idea ing for a time, and seeing no immediate appearbishop appeared in his ecclesiastical robes; but has been broached in Russia that the son of the ance of its discontinuance, the horses too, maniwith the troops, and the scene which followed sion to the throne-has a better claim to the face the storm. Fortunately for Bro. Allen and has thus been described:-" The tide and tu- succession than the son born to Nicholas while myself, a kind friend, whose house was close by, mult of death swept on to the imperial palace. yet a subject. Moreover, should Constantine offered us a shelter and a home for the night. The Emperor and the Empress had proceeded or his partisans be disposed to try to dispute This we gladly accepted, when wearied by the alone to their chapel, and on their knees upon the claims of Alexander, they would have the journeying and labour of the day, we peacefully the altar steps, had mutually sworn to die as countenance of the clergy with Philaret, the fell asleep, leaving the contending elements to Sovereigns Then placing himself at the head of the guard, that yet remained loyal, the Czar bowever cavalierly the Russian may treat his morning, (which is generally the case after such rode out and contronted the rebels. Standing priest personally, he bows before him with serbefore them with haughty bearing, he cried in a vile and superstitious dread when in discharge tifully serene. At an early hour we left Gages, tor Tobique. There we tarried for refreshments which place we reached about five o'clock in the evening.-Some seven years before I had reached as far as Tobique, on a mission, such as the the disputed line, between this Province and the standing as to the place of meeting, we were sions; I ought to state that during my residence Societies.

With this conviction, I now take the opportunity of accomplishing what I have for some time nity of accomplishing what I have for some time of the disputed line, between this Province and t lowing for the harvest—the Indian corn and the houses, erected on the oft-occurring clearan- early start; and after having called by the way day glory.

bition, and his from despotism. Can it be said of as might well delight the admirers of what is appointed. That heard, of the grewing popula, new chapel at Northampton, and was blessed by some as a sufficient justification for not being Latest European Intelligence.

1839 :—"His manner is agreeable, his gait no. grandeur. Here the eye can trace its channer be cortain to the Rus ble, and without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection without the stiffness of the soldier; and at some considerable distance; but there, some pal Church. Nearer to view, a plain erection with the good force around the burying ground, sian authorities, and probably well known at Nearer to view, a plain erection with the good force around the burying ground. ble, and without the stiffness of the soldier; and the peculiar grace that distinguishes him recalls

The death of Nicholas, the accession of Alex
The death of Nich The death of Nicholas, the accession of Alexander, the probable influence of these events upon the present war,—are the topics that now upon the present time it is the scenerof cheering revival have given an air of additional respectability to and this above all cister out this home-stead of Methodism for this part of the the conclusion of negotiations for peace. We was deep—the liberality of the people free and the this home-stead of Methodism for this part of the conclusion of negotiations for peace. We was deep—the liberality of the people free and the little way, still in purpose, and intention very this home-stead of Methodism for this part of the conclusion of negotiations for peace. We was deep—the liberality of the people free and the little way, still in purpose, and intention very this house substitute to the substitute of the singular characters in the scene of the present time it is the scene of cheering revival have given an air of additional respectability to and this above all cister out the people free and the present time it is the scene of the present time it is the scene of the people free and the present time it is the scene of the pr upon the present war,—are the topics that now engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engross the public engage so much as nearly to engage and careiers.

Westeyan Methods Church, to which hope is bounteous. The proceeds were over nine difficulty in the way of such negotiations, while Heaven had surrounded with all earthly advantages,—a figure and countenance more handsome tages,—a figure and co the eldest daughter of Frederick William of Prussia, and sister of the present King. Four sons and three daughters are the issue of this marriage, the eldest son, Alexander Nicolai-witch, having been born in the year 1818. At this limit Nucholas had little expectation of obcoming wilder and wilder, until, maddened into meetings to submit to some disappointment: foaming fury, they danced, they leaped, they two, out of the six evenings we could not expect dashed; and while dancing, leaping, dashing, a large attendance, because of the unpropitious they threw themselves into many fanciful forms character of the weather; but the congregations -running forward, bounding backward, seem- at the other meeting were discouragingly small, ingly to acquire accelerated force, then sideling and the subscription lists, made out at the close of away, as if in pursuit of easier egress—and then each service, nor in advance of those of last year, one portion, in deep and curve-like form, pass- The Agricultural interest in this part of the Proing over the smoother sections of the precipice vince was never, it is presumed, in such a pros--another taking a frenzied leap over some ser--another taking a frenzied leap over some ser-rated projection. Here may be seen a graceful with other reasons, we were expecting an improvtream, passing through a serpentine channel, ment in the Missionary receipts, when compared place. and there, one serene and undisturbed, gliding with those of last year. It seems however that Judging from the signs of the times, and the down with ease on an inclined plane - but all worldly prosperity does not always induce large meeting in the deep dark basin, formed by na- auditories or augmented income, even when the ure for the general gathering. The eye of the visitor from above looks down on the boiling to wonder in some of the meetings at the small confluence of the water beneath, sending forth attendance, and consequent absence of names their spray and vapour, stunning the ear with from the subscription list upon which names I the divine blessing. The interest which the their din. Over these falls pass a considerable had fully calculated; what the result will be from members of our Church, as well as the communiportion of the proceeds of the lumberer's wintry the private appeals which we shall have to make the private appeals which we shall have the p toil. Hence, imprisoned in this turbulent abyss, before District Meeting, I cannot say; but, altho' I are countless numbers of pine and spruce logs, expect to see some improvement upon the receipts to prosper in our hands; and the result has proas well as other woody substances. There some of previous years, I must think, that for Wesof these have been beyond memorial time-and there seemingly destined to remain, in restless and thus deprive themselves and families of the cial prayer to God for his blessing upon our transformed into a fortified place. All the wareand resistless motion. These are the spoil of the information which the ministers of the Circuit labours. gathered waters, ceaselessly passing off, but as have assembled to afford, must be discouraging have assembled to afford, must be discouraging of the first that the latest the latest that t These logs are thrown into every position, as the hearts of some of the people are not in the right result of every variety of motion-some standing place upon the subject of Christian Alissions. erect, others obliquely and horizontally placedmade to change figure and location at the will of the powerful agency, within whose watery apathy of some, I now record with much satisdomain they have been placed. Professor Lyell, the far-famed geologist, is of opinion that the

Niagara Falls were in some time past at Queens-

Niagara Falls were in some time past at Queenstown, some seven miles or more below their present location. This is but the principle announced by the wise man, on a large scale, that the "waters were away the stores". These states of the foreign field.

Some of our old triends have augmented their the "waters were away the stores". These states are stored in the foreign field. that the "waters wear away the stones." There gifts, and others have volunteered for the first is room for the application of a similar opinion time their christian offerings;—while we have to as regards the falls at Victoria; evidently the accord to Mr. Joseph Vincent the credit of pre- works of God in bringing them from darkness rushing waters have been, and still are, carrying senting the sum of £50, which I believe is the on the slow but not less certain work of abrasion largest sum in aid of our foreign agencies that power of Satan unto God. The evidence of this is plainly seen from the was ever given at one time upon this Circuit. form of the sides of the channel through which, The brethren, England, Lockhart, Sponagle and present; but never till now had travelled the after they have spent their rage, the retiring Harris, as well as some of our lay friends, deroad leading to the Falls. About five or six miles waters flow, in more placid current, to the St. livered excellent and stirring addresses upon MR. EDITOR.—Among the many excellent above Tobique, we crossed the Aristook. This John River. Delighted, however, as I was to the subject, which would have done good to our times came forward to kill him, and four times articles which bave recently enriched the columns is a fine river, emptying its large supply into the shrunk back in fear. One thing is certain, of your admirably conducted journal, none can St. John. The bridge which spans this noble pleasing incidence. My object in going there these occasions, and which, if published, would shruck back in loar. One tining is certain, that to the intropid self-possession of that hour, he is indebted for the continuance of his authority. Victory was now easy. He retired from the specific possession with the specific possession of the intropid self-possession of the immediate stream is a fine structure—and the immediate stream is a fine structur from the spot; wherever resistance was made, which the cause of Foreign Missions has on the to accomplish large results. This river has poses. We were, however, met by an unexpect-distance supposing that the Wesleyans of this the artillery played upon the gathering crowds, minds of our friends, and the members of our acquired some fame, owing to its proximity to ed disappointment. Owing to some misunder Circuit have lost heart, upon the subject of Mis-honesty—and though, honesty is always the best Early the next morning we started on our home. If I find fault at all, it is on account of the small From the frequent communications received policy, it is sometimes destined to sustain its integ-question, he endeavoured to detach England from the allience of the surface of th from the alliance of France. Of his private character it is difficult to Countries of the forest are clothing display of taste in the construction of the edifices. In the construction of the edifices. In the construction of the edifices of the forest are clothing display of taste in the construction of the edifices. In the construction of the edifices of the forest are clothing of the forest are clothing of the forest are clothing display of taste in the construction of the edifices. In the construction of the edifices of the forest are clothing of the fo ractor it is difficult to form a correct opinion.— the morning I had the privilege of preachHe has been continued for near four the morning I had the privilege of preachWeeks; in these meetings much good was obtained lipson, announces the firm resolution of the EngWeeks; in these meetings much good was obtained lipson, announces the firm resolution of the Eng-He has been placed in a situation of terrible rethe same of our sponsibility; he has now gone to his account, and his opponents can well afford the performance of the season allotted for the perf

The successor to the throne of the Czars is craggy and resistless eminencies, forcing onward of the humble class—Meeting the eye however, to Woodstock—at six in the evening, walked part of the Circuit; within and around the one The Paper is tile I, and may be seen free of charge at Hollowing Vision Form, seemingly saying: I am placed here for seriptions will be received for this Periodical.

The successor to the inrone of the Czars is the design and resistions eminencies, incoming on ward to Woodstock—at six in the evening, walked part of the Circuit; within and around the one about two miles to the upper village, and addressing the seeming on ward in the neighbourhood of the Mission House, more as it impinges on the stubborn barriers which form, seemingly saying: I am placed here for by the Lord, the Spirit"—then returned, and in addition to a new arrangement in the interior secriptions will be received for this Periodical. tering those obstacles which it was thought his interrupt its more placid flow, thereby throwing aspiring brother Constantine would cast in his itself into whirling eddies, dancing, dashing, something more than a mere object of vision—I found that "the rest of a laboring man" is never of the building, by which the comfort of the confort of the confo aspiring brother Constantine would cast in his itself into whirling eddies, dancing, dancing,

No communication will be inserted without the writer furnish in witch his name in road starting events.

We do not hold consistence statements of correspondent accounts of correspondent account of allegiance, and the whole garrison performed of allegiance, and the whole garrison performed the same correspondent with the breath places very tegibly.

The Provincial Weight is named is the Court house. In the statements of our choir, which has place of our choir, which has not interest the death of Nicholas, to ming through its narrowed pass, and over its most fully, had been deathed to be the arena of stirring events.

This I was informed is the Court house. In the distance, environed by evergreens, indigenous to the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing on the soil is an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing on the soil is an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil imposing the soil is an erection, which has a most fully, had destined to condense their of all gistance, environed by evergreens, indigenous to the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the soil, was an erection, whose spire pointing of the seen both. Be this as it may, I was filled with more permanent abode. Thus ends my Septemin length and forty wide, will have one gallery, admiration and astonishment, commingling with ber Missionary tour, and, for the present, my and a low pulpit. The Mission House near the R. KNIGHT.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

cause advocated is of high importance; and I had reap the advantage of this protest against the the far-famed geologist, is of opinion that the ple with those endeavours to collect the means of

The Hon. C. Connell, with his usual readiness, taken place in our Chapel at Lockbartville, is creproceeded to Jacksontown. The day was fine, purpose; a sum offered by Jos. R. Hea, Esq., main. It appears from a reconguissance made and the continued dry weather had rather pre- whose generous gifts materially helped to the at- in the environs of the place, that a Russian corps, maturely ripened the crops of grain. Hence we tainment of the former object, and which was about 20,000 strong, is encamped to the east of and generally engaged in gathering in the bar- originating course of this movement. The chapel lage of Tchourgoum. These measures of the vest. We had more present than we had ex- is now finished, well painted within and without, enemy cause the English to reflect, and they are pected, and some seven pounds were subscribed and is an ornament to the place. The Green- most actively strengthening the fortifications of The Meetings held at Northampton and Wil- wich Chapel is now undergoing repairs, and when Balaklava. The French are doing the same at liamstown were also considerably in advance finished will not only present a more pleasing ap- Kamiescha, in order to be tranquil at the south thus prosperously terminated our labours, as de- ister and hearer, which ought to be sought in the siege operations towards the north side, so as to Kentville Chapel all the old fittings have been and thereby completely invest it. The Russians Woodstock is a rapidly-growing place, and removed, and the erection of new and convenient continue to lavish their balls and shells. Night hold of the affections of the community. Revi- chapels, especially those of the country parts, would our works in the space of two hours. The Allies worship is too small, and by no means in a right floors of the building in which they stand, I am decided importance has been made. said to the heir to his crown that it was neces- it, the proofs of its liberality. In the sunnier The house of the kind friend with whom we location. To take it into the village, on the other persuaded that very few of our ministers would of every act that might give him ease, and sur-sary to make peace, even at the cost of reducing months of March and April the wintry snow dis-had to stay was fully a mile beyond the spot solves, filling every channel with water. The where this young Niagara holds his acquisic sire on the part of our friends, as well as the re-We give but little credence to such a state- frost unlooses its hold, detaching from the rocks, sway. So desirous were we, that ere we could siding minister. This we hope soon to see accompowers;—This the Kentville friends did as soon ment, and we place but little confidence in the and the surrounding soil, portions of their sub consent to take any refreshment, Brother Allen plished. The site is fixed. The plan is in conrepulsive picture which the last years of the Emperor's public life present. It is related that when all hope was past, and he had received when all hope was past, and he had received when all hope was past, and he had received which the last years of the Sabbath in their improved and myself resolved we would walk back to the templation. The form and dimensions are deciding third service of the Sabbath in their improved the streams which and myself resolved we would walk back to the falls, and feast our vision on this watery wonder. aggrandizement which have proved hereditary increasing course, beg, borrow, or steal, which The hoarse and ceaseless sound was our guide. In the persent of the hoarse and ceaseless sound was our guide.

> old chapel, which was commenced by my prede- tacked the redoubt with considerable force. the new chapel; the friends in Cornwallis have been suspended. Up to the 26th February subscribed nobly and at once for these objects, nothing new had occurred at Eupatoria. cally expressive phrase, already on the paper month, and I now lay before your readers, as far have no doubt, what they have been to mysell that on the previous day the French had destroynow under your editorial management. I shall as ascertained, the result of these services. We not, therefore, make any labored attempt to deshave six Chapels, placed at suitable distances, What we now want on this Circuit more than with great loss. cribe a scenc with which I was so much delightwithin the thirty miles which is likely the extent ought besides, is a speedy, general and continual
>
> The second edition of the Times contains the Revival on the Woodstock Circuit.

DEAR SIR,-Believing that any intelligence respecting the progress of the cause of God will prove interesting to the numerous readers of the and Russians, in which General Monet was Provincial Wesleyan, I send you the following wounded. He also mentions with great satisnotice of a gracious work now in progress at attention which marked the hearing of God's Word, as well as the impressions which seemed to be produced, that the time to favour our Zion are unremitting, and entitled to great praise. of meetings for the purpose of seeking more fully to hope that the pleasure of the Lord was about was then at the head of 42,000 excellent troops. ved that it is better to trust in the Lord, than to boped that on the first of March the entire Ottoput confidence in man. On the second day, in man army would be assembled at Eupstoria. leyans to absent themselves from these meetings, the afternoon, we appointed a meeting for spe-

Superintendent, conscious that it was not by might or by power, but by the spirit of God, we Hoping that my successors on this Circuit will repaired to the place of prayer. It was indeed a solemn season,—the influences imparted led us to hope, as has been the case, that these were will immediately proceed to effect its destruction.

Subsequent gatherings have been marked by the middle aged and gray headed unitedly seeking the mercy of God; and yet more delightful into light, and turning their hearts from the

Some whose lives were fast ebbing out in the

WILLIAM TWEEDY.

find there has been no one exception to a respectThe road leading from the Aristook to the The attendance, owing to a public meeting being general management our extended Missions, GERMANY.—While Lord John Russell was passdecks and sides, and intended to be taken into and to acquire, at all sacrifices, Constantinople as the soat of his great empire. His claim to excause. At the last District meeting, Brother the quality of the land on either side, not only had, however, an excellent spirit of liberality on prayers of all our people, and unless they come of the Gazette des Israelites, sent an address to carry twelve guns each, which may, however, all Johnson and myself were appointed as the depumantains it adaptation amply to reward the toils the occasion; and unless they come to hear described, by the ministers invited for the

the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the
the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the
the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the
the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the
the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the
the occasion; and in this place, where last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year
to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year to hear described, by the ministers invited for the last year. tation to assist the Ministers on the Woodstock of the agricultarist, but progresses in excellence. there was no effort of the kind made, we had of occasion, the fallen state, and the moral wants of ing his lordship for his efforts in favour of the With tion of Christians differing from the orthodox Greek Christians and Andover Circuits. The month of September, With one peculiarity, the observing traveller, collection and subscription the sum of nine man everywhere, their prayers may lack the nedecidedly the most pleasant for an excursion in can scarcely fail to have his attention arrested— pounds. Having to preach one of the Missionthese Provinces,—when the grain crops are yel. that is, the more than comfortable appearance of ary sermons on the Sabbath, we had to make an to God for the speedy introduction of the latter dress at the same time expresses a hope that in to carry the arms of the Allied Powers into the the conferences of Vienna no distinction will be shallow waters which have heretofore been the guished, in 1840, in reference to the Egyptian buck-wheat have well nigh arrived to their matu- ces, by the road sides. There may be seen not to baptize some children, I arrived, through mer- our Missionary Anniversary in Lower Horton, admitted among the races of the Ottoman Em-

BY R. M. S. ASIA. Our latest dates are to the 17th ult, we make for their timely exertions upon this subject, for Russia could maintain the hope of saving it. That The next day we held the anniversary of the they by their indomitable perseverance provoked hope must now be feeble, if it has not expired.

message stated that the Grand Duke Michael had been blown up with the Malakoff Battery.

and in the event of success, to invest Sebastopol

Menschikoff bas sent the following despatch bis Government :- On the night between the 21st and 22nd February we erected a redoubt that we received no annoyance from the Allies. On the night of the 24th and 25th the Allies atcessor, has been sold and we are engaged in the Two regiments repulsed them. The enemy lost erection of another one in the neighbourhood of 600 men. The mining operations of the Allies garrison of Sebastopol opposite the French works. The loss of the French consisted in some hundreds wounded.

We have a later despatch from Lord Raglan. dated the 24th Feb., in which, after his usual notice of the variableness of the weather, &c., he describes the severe brush between the French Victoria Corner, about eleven miles from this George Brown, the gallant General being restored to 'perfect health.' The despatch concludes with the following :- The railway is getting on remarkably well, and the exertions of Mr. Beattie, who is superintending the works, The casualties from 17th to 24th are one killed and seven wounded.

Letters from Eupatoria, received at Constan-merce, has become the pivot of the operations of Prince Gortschakoff and Prince Manschikoff .-If the Russians do not evacuate it voluntarily -which is scarcely probable-Admiral Lyons The Allies also intend to bombard Theodosia, an undertaking with which Admiral Bruat will be The Post's correspondent, under date the 20th, says-After a season of delightful weather, we are again plunged into the depths of winter .-The cold is fearful in the extreme, with a heavy fall of snow. It was generally understood that an attack was to have been made this morning. All the troops were ordered to parade at at 3 A. M., but the weather defeated everything.

THE BALTIC STEAM FLEET .- The Times service of sin, have at length had their feet turned into the way of God's testimonies, and they of Finland, on the opening of the navigation, now feel by happy experience that religion brings under the command of Admiral Richard Dundas, peace to the soul, and gives rest to the conscience. The work continues to progress—the interest in the meetings appears unabated-and are three-deckers, but only two of these, the free who receive his Gospel in the love thereof. nearly new, ships of 91 and 81 gans. Then The interest felt throughout the Circuit gene- come ten more ships-of-the-line, two-deckers, or rally in the means of grace, encourages us to labour on in this good work, although sometimes third and fourth rates, carrying 60 guns, and comprising what were termed the block-ships, take conrage. May his work prosper yet more frigates and corvettes will be increased to no less than 35; and, in addition to these vessels, the fleet will contain eight mortar boats, carrying one 13-inch gun each, 20 steam gun boats, carrying two or three guns, and five heavy float-Here we held our first Missionary meeting.— mittee that have placed beneath their control and LORD JOHN RUSSELL AND THE JEWS OF ing batteries, plated with wrought iron on their unex ness,

this o

age s lso

wait

and his opponents can well afford to draw the cally, the journey from St. John to the Grand the seat of Administrative justice, where County highly-esteemed friend Chas. H. Connell, Jr., I ty of the Gospel;—and perhaps the frequent at the seat of Administrative justice, where County highly-esteemed friend Chas. H. Connell, Jr., I ty of the Gospel;—and perhaps the frequent at the same rights and the same for the same rights and the same rights and the same for the same rights and the same rights are rights and the same rights and the same rights and the same rights and the same rights are rights and rights and rights are rights and rights and rights are rights are rights and rights are right