

‘ 1793; on the part of the Council, being also a manager on the ‘ part of the Council of the conference now reporting, a con‘ versation ensued between them in which Mr. Pagan and ‘ Captain Clinch insisted that the report of the said conference
 ‘ in 1793, as it stands on the Journals of this House was draught-
 ‘ ed in writing before the conference ended, and, that there ‘ might be no doubt of the correctness of such draught, it was ‘ shown to the committee who managed for the Council, who ‘ were pleased to correct the said draught before the conference
 ‘ broke up, and that the entry on the Journals of the House
 ‘ was taken verbatim from the Minute, Draught or Paper so
 ‘ made and corrected—which was not denied by Judge Al- ‘ len.

‘ That in consequence of the declaration of the committee of ‘ Council that the Council would adhere to their said resolve,
 ‘ and their disavowal of part of the said report of the committee
 ‘ of this House in 1793, your committee thought it their duty
 ‘ to discontinue the conference, and return to this House to ‘ make the present report and receive further instructi‘ ons.
