FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1881.

THE political event of the past week was the banquet tendered to Hon. Mr. Blake at the Queen's batel, in Toronto, on Thursday night. "The banquet" says the Mail, "resolved itself into a political gathering of Ontario Reformers. The company, accordingly, comprised representatives of the party in the various SERIOUS FIRE.—Between three and four o'clock on Saturday morning the Carson Steam Saw and Shingle Mill here was totally destroyed by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown. The flames were first seen insuing through the roof of the boiler-toom. Mr. Carson states his loss, at $4,000. No insurance. The mill was a first-class one, and was built only a few years ago. The lumber was nearly all saved.
