$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Men -- Free

Send Name and Address Today You Can Have It Free and be Strong and Vigorous

I have in my possession, a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened memory, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural, and the loss of youth, that has cured as any worn and nervous man right in their own home—without any scientific restoratives, that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly vigor and virility, "quickly and quietly," should have a copy of this prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the best-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

AFTER FORTY-SEVEN YEARS SERVICE IN THE MILITIA COL. G. R. WHITE RETIRES

At the Union Club this evening friends of Colonel G. R. White, D. O. C., who is retiring from active militia service, will tender him a complimentary banquet. Representative citizens will attend and prominent figures in the militia life of St. John will be among the guests.

Colonel White during his stay in St. John has become a general favorite and the gathering at the club tonight will be representative. Colonel White and Mrs. White will leave on Saturday for their former home in Quebec City, where they will make their residence for a time at least.

At the time when he studied at Lennoxville there were about one hundred and ninety militia. Many are since deceased and numbers of others have won honor throughout the country. The headmaster at the college was the late Right Rev. Dr. William Williams, Bishop of Quebec.
