

CITY NEWS

From Thursday's Daily. The municipal election in Trail went by acclamation. James H. Schofield is mayor for another year, and the aldermanic board is as follows: James Patterson, Byron, George White, George Morin, Alexander Hector, Archibald Donaldson and Eric Harkness.

Citizens will do well to keep a watch on their eyes while the present haze lasts. The cornices of numerous buildings are festooned with icicles that are likely to fall at any moment, and some of them are large enough to do serious damage to anyone beneath.

Colonel Holmes, district officer commanding, will be in Rossland on the 27th inst. for the purpose of inspecting the arms and stores of the local militia. Prior to that time he will be in Kelowna, and it is requested that these be returned to Smith's tinshop forthwith.

John J. Hand, formerly of Rossland, writes from Cornucopia, Ore., requesting The Miner to deny the report in circulation about the city recently to the effect that he was injured at Cripple Creek, Col. Mr. Hand has been working continuously at Cornucopia, and has not been near Cripple Creek or any other Colorado point.

The incoming city council might very properly look into the sections of the Streets and Roads bylaw relating to the cleaning of snow from sidewalks. The merchants of the city almost without exception have gone to considerable pains to keep the walks in front of their respective places of business clear of snow, but in many instances are the fronts of unoccupied premises cleaned.

While entering Calvary cemetery yesterday morning the remains of the late Frank Gaddo sank into soft snow and the carriage capsized. The glass on one side and end of the hearse was shattered.

Messrs. Craven & Fringe, lessees of the L. K. L. mine, shipped yesterday twelve tons of high grade concentrates collected from the Wilfley tables at the O. K. mill. The product is valued at about $40 per ton, and was sent to the Northport smelter for treatment.

Some wag decorated fire alarm box 42 last night after the manner of the election was announced, the motive being ex-Mayor Dean's frequent threat that the box was to be painted in black cloth, ornamented with white streamers, and bears the written words "Requiem in pace—Resurgam."

The city is constructing a hose shed at the east side of the bluff on Columbia avenue, where the sanitary department formerly stored next to the armory block. The owner of the premises formerly utilized for the use of the building, which the corporation believed it was using rent free.

les McPhee, a popular member of the organization. It has been arranged to hold a memorial service at the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock, to be conducted by J. Burt Morgan and to be attended by the entire congregation. The deceased was a faithful member and supporter of the Baptist church, and in no quarter was his demise more sincerely regretted than by the members of that church.

The Odd Fellows' dance at Union hall last night was a successful and enjoyable function. The attendance was pleasantly large, the music admirable and the floor exceptionally good, all of which contributed to the evening's enjoyment. The floor committee was assiduous in promoting the pleasure of the guests and many encomiums were passed on the manner in which these hospitable duties were performed.

From Sunday's Daily. Woodmen of the World are organizing a ladies' circle in this city. The Macabee excursion to Trail under the auspices of the local Elive has been postponed for two weeks.

The police investigation into the cases of the lads who obtained liquor on Thursday night has up to the present time revealed the fact that one of the boys stole the liquor.

Rossland Conservatives will meet shortly for the purpose of appointing delegates to the meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Union at Victoria on February 1. Rossland is entitled to five delegates.

The last copy of the Toronto Saturday Globe contained a photo-engraving of a string of yellow grouse shot around Rossland together with the photo of J. H. Fletcher's sky-cocker Minto, over which the birds were shot.

A team of horses without bells to signal their movements almost ran down a child the corner of Columbia avenue and Washington street yesterday afternoon. The presence of bells would have prevented the mishap, and one of the city ordinances requires the use of bells.

The Current Events club meets tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock in the comfortable rooms recently secured in the Bank of Montreal block. The subject for the day is Wagner's "Parsifal" and is proposed to be given a course of study for the remaining winter months. The draft bylaws and constitution will be presented for adoption.

The local hockey players had a fast practice at the rink last night after the usual skating hours. Seniors and intermediates went on the ice together and an hour's hard work was done with the players divided into opposing teams. The teams sported well, and are rapidly getting into shape for the suggested tour within the next week or two.

The hockey club management is still unsuccessful in securing an outside team to cross sticks with the home players. The Rossland club will make its first appearance on the ice at Nelson and Sandon, but these dates are doubtful owing to the lack of ice at the points mentioned. Nelson people say they don't expect to play at Queen City will have a team as yet, but the local men are disposed to believe Nelson has a few cards up its sleeve on the hockey question.

A general meeting of the curling club took place at the rink last night. Herbert E. Towson was appointed assistant secretary. The principal business of the meeting was a discussion on the rink for the coming season. The rink for the coming season has already been selected as follows: E. Lamont, D. Guthrie, E. A. Rolfe and Fred W. Frost. The rink will probably go to Revelstoke, and these will be selected at another general meeting called for 8 o'clock tomorrow night. The rink for the coming season's trophy series was captured by Dr. Kerr's rink, which defeated T. L. Dunn's quartette by two points.

From Tuesday's Daily. A score of Northport people came up last night to witness the production by the Olympia Opera company.
