A COAT OF FUTURIST SILK

The precise, strong colored printings now called Futurist patterns are the craze and are more dainty than the bold hues of the Bulgarian designs. This coat of heliotrope and pink Futurist silk is a very graceful little affair indeed, with its deep collar of black satin and its long sash hanging at the side. The hat of violet hemp with American Beauty roses and mauve silk apples carries out the color scheme of the coat. This coat accompanies a skirt of draped black lansdowne, with which are worn buttoned boots of patent leather.
