SHELLARD-ROBSON.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Grace church on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Mackenzie when Clara Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Robson, Sierra Madre, California, became the bride of Robt. Marquis Shellard, youngest son of Mr. Robert Shellard, Shellard Road.

An exceedingly pretty house wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rappo, Victoria St., Woodstock, on Wednesday afternoon September 30th, when their daughter, Alma Marguerite, was united in marriage to Dr. Gordon Morrison Elliott, youngest son of Mrs. Joseph Elliott, of Brantford.

Promptly at four o'clock the bridal party entered the living room, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. George H. Wilkinson of Toronto. The party passed between white pillars, beautifully draped and decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and connected with streamers of white satin ribbon.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of furs, to the little attendant pearl pins and a brooch, Wilkinson, the pianist, a bar pin set with brilliants.

The ceremony was concluded by the signing of the register and after congratulations had been showered upon the bride and groom, the bridal party, and about thirty guests proceeded to the breakfast room which was prettily decorated in a clear scheme of pink and green.

The bride's mother was becomingly gowned in a broadcote poplin in taupe shade with trimmings of gold lace, while the groom's mother wore a gown of black moire with hat to match.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of furs, to the little attendant pearl pins and a brooch, Wilkinson, the pianist, a bar pin set with brilliants.

After a short wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Elliott will reside at 31 Waterloo Street, Brantford. The bride travelled in a handsome suit of hunter's green with snail hat, with a crown of silver brocade and silver flowers, and upstanding plume of numidy blue.

P. S. A. BROTHERHOOD AT OPENING MEETING

Mr. W. G. Raymond Delivered Address on the Causes of the Present War.

P. S. A. held their opening meeting of the season in the Congregational church yesterday, and it was pleasing to see a big crowd there, showing signs of the interest that is being taken in the P. S. A. Brotherhood. The president, in a short address, urged the men present to do their best for the coming winter, their best so much distress owing to the war that the brotherhood wants to help those who can't help themselves.

FATAL ACCIDENT

ESSEX, Ont., Oct. 5.—While visiting at the home of William Manchester Colchester in company with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Little, May Little of Windsor, daughter of Arthur Little, was accidentally killed last evening. She was swinging in the barn, when the beam to which the swing was attached fell, crushing her skull.

COMMITTED SUICIDE
