MR. WRIGHTON AT PARK BAPTIST

Pastor Takes Up His Duties Again After His Illness.

CHURCH OF GOD NEEDS REVIVAL

In the Evening Preached Eloquently on "The Open Door."

The pastor, the Rev. W. H. Wrighton, preached both morning and evening, Sunday at Park Baptist, having fully recovered from his illness. The subject in the morning was "Is a Revival possible in Brantford?" The pastor took his text from the words contained in Habakkuk 3: 2, "O Lord revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known in wrath remember mercy."

In his introductory remarks, the question was asked, why was a revival necessary—in this great hour of the nation's trial, not for material things we have the men and the money, but we need great earnestness, and a deep consideration of the nation's honor, and a sacredness to duty, and a sincere repentance of all wrong doing in order to overcome the enemy and secure victory, so in the spiritual realm, Habakkuk prayed to the Lord for a revival in His work—"O Lord revive thy work." In like manner too, the church of God needs to pray for a revival. When? Now, in the midst of the years, the time we are now having. Where? First, in our own hearts—the hearts of God's professing children.

Do we not need to be revived? Is every soul among us yearning for the prosperity of the work of the Lord? Are we putting forth a hand to lift up, or to help? Then, so long as there are souls to save, we need to have a yearning for the salvation. Again, the church as a whole, needs to be alive—it must have a wide open door, and all be made heartily welcome. Then the church needs to be in prayer for a revival. A dead prayer meeting will not produce a living church. We need to be in prayer that God's name should be glorified upon the earth. Lastly, the results of earnest prayer and a great desire for spiritual blessings—souls will be saved, and churches filled with men and women seeking after truth.

The evening subject was "The Open Door," based upon the words, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. Among the points in the sermon were: 1st, that our Lord was the only one who could point men to himself and say, "I am the door." The prophet of old pointed the world to Him who was to come; there were many sacrifices—but when the Lord came, He proclaimed Himself as the door. There was only one door to heaven—there were many doors opened to pleasure, to wealth and to fame, but only one door to salvation; and Jesus Christ was that door. 2nd, The attributes of the door—it was a wide door, open to any man and every man, no matter how sinful; yet it might seem a paradox—although the door was wide yet it was narrow; while it was open to every sinner, it was not open to his sins. The gambler must leave his cards behind him in entering this door—the swearing man, his profanity—we could not make our sins with us. It was also a strong door—no one breaks through that door—read Romans 8: 35-39. It was also an open door—the door of mercy was ever open to the sinner, and yet those who rejected Christ, those who refused to accept, or to enter in, the door was closed. Illustrations were given of Noah's sounding the word of warning for 120 years—yet when the floods came, those on the outside, no matter how earnest their entreaties, could not enter. It was a dreadful thing to be left out or rather, by one's neglect or refusal to enter, to be shut out. Many other earnest and faithful presentations of the gospel in connection with this scripture were given.

The Cook Quit

And we were "up in the air" about it because the wife knew nothing about cooking. She tried her best and meant well, I guess, but her first attempt at a meal convinced me.

So we had just about decided to eat in restaurants when suddenly my wife struck a bright idea. "Why don't you call 139 and insert a help wanted ad for a cook in The Courier," she said. And I did—

-and the next morning there were many to choose from
