Trip to Frazer Falls Greatly Enjoyed by Excursionists—Prospector Will Sail Again Tonight.

W. H. Meed, of the Stewart river company operating the steamers Prospector and Quick gave to the Nugget yesterday an interesting account of the conditions on the Stewart river as he found them a few days ago while

RECEIVED BY WIRE. CONSIDINES ON BAIL

Seattle, July 12, via Skagway, July 17.—Both John and Tom Considine have been held over to the superior court for the murder of W. L. Mendith on June 25th. Judge George before whom the preliminary hearing was conducted refused to hear arguments of the prosecution on its motion that bail be not granted, but that both men be held in jail until brought before the superior court on trial. Bail for John was fixed at $20,000 and for Tom at $2500. Bail in both cases was furnished.

RECEIVED BY WIRE. MINERS' STRIKE

At Rossland, B. C., Is Largest in History of Camp.

Rossland, B. C., July 17, via Skagway, July 17.—The largest miners' strike in the history of British Columbia is now on here, 1200 men having walked out of the mines, all of which are shut down. The object of the miners in striking is to assist the strikers of the Northport smelters.

L. A. Burwash, crown timber agent at Stewart, is shaking hands with old friends in the city.

STEAMER LORELEI

Arrives With a Cargo of Prisoners From Fortymile.

The little steamer Lorelei returned this morning from a trip to Fortymile bringing Fay and Faith Devinne, Harry Freeman and the two boys Mark Stein and Martin Logan, who went down the river in a canoe on Tuesday a week ago.

Fay and Faith Devinne and Harry Freeman were arrested at Fortymile on the fourth of July on a warrant sworn out by Frankie White, charging them with stealing $780 in dust and currency and also a gold watch.

From the story as told by Frankie to the police on the morning of the Fourth a 1 on which the warrant of arrest was issued, it is learned that the quartet consisting of the prisoners and Frankie had planned to leave Dawson for Nome and had on the day previous bought a small boat and stocked it with provisions for the trip. Having all things in readiness for an early start the following morning the quartet started out to take a last lingering look at the town and the familiar places which would henceforth know them no more forever, and also to inaugurate the approach of the Fourth of July.

Frankie was not altogether positive of everything that had taken place during the night but when she awoke about 3 o'clock the next morning she found herself alone in the Melbourne hotel with her money amounting to $760 in dust and currency, gone as well as her gold watch. Going down to the place where the boat had been tied up the previous night she found that gone also and placing the two circumstances together she came to the conclusion that her companions had decided to leave her behind and had also taken with them such of her possessions as they could lay their hands upon. She immediately notified the police and the warrant was issued and a wire sent to Fortymile where, later in the day, the boat containing the trio, was discovered silently gliding down with the current of the mighty Yukon. The boat was halted by the police and as it drew to the shore the occupants were placed under arrest and this morning were brought to Dawson.

These cases as well as that of the boys are being heard in the police court this afternoon.

Seized a Store.

There was a warm time on First avenue in the vicinity of the old post-office building yesterday afternoon, which nearly precipitated a scrap, when Alex McFarlane seized under a writ of ejectment the cigar store belonging to the firm of Neider and Greenleaf.

Neider was not present at the time but Greenleaf was and attempted to put a quietus to the procedure and remove the balance of the goods, part of which had already been taken away, but armed with the necessary papers and pressing into the service a gentleman of his acquaintance, who was among the crowd watching the proceeding, and appointing him bailiff, Alex effectually checkmated the attempt to remove the goods and gained and held possession of the store.

Missing Man.

Information wanted at the United States consulate at Munich, Germany, of Mathias Gfingler and Max Gfingler, brothers, who formerly worked at a bakery at Juneau, Alaska, lately supposed to be in the Klondike.

Shoff, the Dawson Dog Doctor, lives near Drug Store.

Paid for the Ride.

George Allen a teamster from Hunker creek was found asleep and in a helpless condition on Second avenue yesterday afternoon. It required a wagon to convey him to the barracks and George thought he was getting a free ride. But he had another thing coming this morning, when he was fined $3 and costs and $2 for his ride, by Magistrate Wroughton in the police court.

Stampede to the Rockies.

A gentleman arriving from Last Chance last night brought word that a party of 12 French Canadians had left the creek a short time previous in apparent great haste headed for the Rocky mountains. Nothing could be ascertained as to their destination, but it was evident they had received a tip of a new discovery of considerable importance.

Striking White Fishermen Turn Tables on Japs and Maroon Them on Islands

LOCATIONS OF WHICH ARE NOT KNOWN

Japanese Boats Destroyed and Rifles Thrown Into Water.

MORE TROUBLE IS EXPECTED

Seven Japs Found on Bowen Island and Rescued—Strikers Determined to Continue Fight.

Vancouver, July 17, via Skagway, July 17.—Developments in the Fraser river strike situation during the past 24 hours read like the proverbial dime novel. The union fishermen now have the upper hand, having turned the tables on the Japs in a manner that it without parallel in the history of the many labor disturbances in British Columbia. As the result of a battle of small boats out in the gulf many shots were fired but none of the combatants were killed. Sixteen Japs were taken prisoners by the whites. The boats of the Japs were overturned and their rifles and fishing gear thrown into the water. The prisoners were taken to small islands far out in the gulf where they were marooned. The exact location of the islands is not known but it was selected by the whites several weeks ago for occasions such as the present and it is probable that the Japs will be kept there for the remainder of the season unless the place is discovered by the authorities.

Vancouver, July 17.—Seven Japs were discovered on and rescued from Bowen island this morning but the 16 spirited away yesterday by the strikers have not yet been found. Further and more serious trouble is expected.

Should Change Pipes.

The purported telegram from Whitehorse, published Saturday by our unreliable evening contemporary giving the account of the capture of Ewan Harrison the insane prisoner who escaped from the police while enroute to the outside, was declared at the police headquarters to be absolutely without foundation as the man has not been captured and is still roaming the country.

Dispute Over Boundaries.

The gold commissioner's court is being occupied today by a suit concerning the boundary lines between the hillside and creek claims at 243 below lower on Dominion. The case is entitled Montague vs Champlain.

IT CAME FORTH AS A FLOWER, BUT--ALAS!

there with the Prospector. He says: "We arrived at Frazer Falls early on Sunday morning having made the entire trip from Dawson in a trifle over two days. The Patterson party of ex-Bank of Commerce men were safely landed at the falls with their 18 months' outfit and supplies, their intention being to explore and prospect the head waters of the south fork.

"While on the trip they bought a live marten which had been captured by the McQuesten Indians and the little animal is now a pet of the Bank of Commerce boys there.

"Among the passengers was F. H. Brain for three years has operated a trading post at Lansing, 100 miles above the falls on the north fork, his trade being exclusively with Indians who number about 50 and who have never seen civilization. They are allied to the Mackenzie river tribes but are spoken of as 'Brain's Indians.'

"Although six different parties of prospectors and their outfits were landed at the falls and it is significant that they had all been there before.

"The hay crop on the Stewart promises to be exceedingly good this season. Supplies and harvesting tools were taken up to S. H. Henry's ranch at Marcy May creek where about 75 tons will represent this season's crop, which amount the Stewart River Company has contracted to transport to Dawson.

M. J. McNeill will cut 50 tons of hay "By invitation of the Stewart River Company, a pleasure trip to the falls was made by several ladies, namely: Mrs. Clegg, Miss Zella Clegg and Mrs. H. C. Davis. Last and least in size and age was 3-months-old baby Davis, and in commemoration of the little traveler's first trip he will hereafter bear the name of R. Stewart Davis.

"The Prospector left Fraser Falls Monday morning and arrived here yesterday morning. She will return to Stewart river tonight.

"I met Weldy Young, mining recorder for the district and Constable Joy. They gave me the following information relative to mining operations on the neighboring creeks:

"Clear creek is being worked at 27, 28, 29, 7, 5, 3 and 1 below discovery; also discovery, 1, 2, 3, 7, 20, 24, 42, 44, 115, 116, 122 and 123 above.

"Left Fork is worked at 5, 17, 20, 22, 50, 57, 158 and 185. Two claims are being prospected on Squaw creek. On discovery on Clear creek Thos. Spitzer and partners are putting in a dam and changing the bed of the creek. On 3 below the same work is in operation. 'No. 50-on Left Fork, owned by Mrs. O'Neil and others is being dammed across the entire claim. It is about seven feet to bedrock and extensive work will be done on the claim this summer. This is the banner claim on Clear creek and is considered the most valuable property in the district
