FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

PEREAU AND VICINITY

J. D. Bennett is cutting a slash these days with his wood-sawing machine.

Everything points toward spring once more. The schooner Maple Leaf and the tug J. A. Mumford were in the Basin last week.

The schooner Murray B. is at the wharf waiting for a favorable chance across the Bay with a load of apples.

Mr. Frank Warr and family have moved to Berwick.

Mr. Frank Blenus is spending his vacation in Halifax.

Mrs. R. A. Porter spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Dexter Forsythe, Greenwich.

BILLTOWN

Miss Julia Sweet arrived home on Tuesday last after spending six weeks at Halifax.

Miss Carrie Weaver spent the week-end at her home in Medford.

Miss Marion Kinsman spent the week end last week at Mr. Scott Blenkhorn's, Canning.

Miss Helen Steeves is spending some time in Wolfville.

Miss Minnie Reid has gone to Mr. Reid Pelton's, Coldbrook for an extended visit.

Mrs. Clarence Graves spent last week at her home in Welsford.

Mrs. Alonzo Palmeter who has been very ill for several weeks went to the Victoria General Hospital Tuesday last.

Among the new recruits from Billtown are Messrs Ralph Reid and Jack Morton, Artillery Brigade, Halifax and Cecil Morton in the 112th at Kentville.

STEAM MILL VILLAGE

The mild weather and the warbling of the birds are tokens of the good old Spring time coming.

Mr. Robert Lantz of New Ross has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Oscar Hiscoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sweet of Centreville spent Sunday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crocker.

Mr. Smith, head agent for R. A. Lister & Co., Toronto, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Reid last week.

Mr. Eddie Redden met with a quite severe accident while in the woods on Thursday last, by cutting his knee quite badly.

Mrs. Andrew Boyle of Port Williams has been spending a few days with her son Mr. Waldo Boyle.

Mr. Warren Redden of Somerset spent Sunday at the home of his uncle, Mr. J. E. Redden.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forsythe and family of New Minas visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDonald on Thursday.

We are pleased to report Mr. E. W. Reid, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out again.

Mr. Harry Sheffield of Upper Dyke visited Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sawyer recently.

Mr. Andrew Boyle of Port Williams has been visiting at the home of his son Mr. Lester Boyle.

Mr. Guy and Ernest Roubar of Dalhousie visited friends in this place last week.

CANAAN

The robbers have arrived, welcome harbingers of Spring. March has come and gone, and proved to be the stormiest month of the winter.

A very successful donation party was held at the residence of Mr. Arthur Eisenhour on Friday evening, March 30th. Several Scotch songs were very nicely rendered by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McAvoy, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The sound of the whistle is again heard in the land as Mr. Arthur Ward's mill has begun sawing for the summer.

The Book and The Sword

The above is the title of a very neatly bound book sent us with the compliments of Rev. Henry R. Boyer, M. S. T., District Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, St. John, N. B. It is beautifully illustrated and contains over 120 pages. This gives a very interesting and carefully written report of the work of the British and Foreign Bible Society for the past year and a periscope view of the main aspects of the society's operations. Students who desire to learn of how the Bible is being distributed in all lands should have a copy of this book.
