These were the encouraging words addressed to The Planet this morning by D. McLachlan, of the Canada Business College. This College is indeed a magnificent institution and a credit to the city, and its wide reputation for turning out thorough and practical business men is well deserved. One of the splendid features of the College is its excellent staff of teachers. The staff will be composed of the same men as last year. J. W. Powers will have charge of the shorthand department. Mr. Dale the junior commercial class, and Mr. Causgrove will practically have charge of the senior commercial class. Mr. Galbraith, who was at the head of the senior commercial class last year, will assist Mr. McLachlan in positions for his students. The school opens next Tuesday.

Besides an excellent lot of students from the surrounding towns and cities, three students are expected from the University of Manitoba, one from Ft. Terry, N. Y., one from New Brunswick, one from Dakota, and several from the North West Territories.

Two excellent classes were received at the College today, but there is at present no material in the College with which to supply them. These calls are being received every day by Mr. McLachlan, so that he has no trouble in supplying in positions for his students. The school opens next Tuesday.

James C. The family consisted of John Northwood, father of John of this city; William of the city of Detroit and Mrs. Puffer, of the city of St. Thomas, the late Mrs. McCabe, of Wardsville, the late Hon. Joseph Northwood, senator; the late William Northwood, the late Henry Northwood, the late Thomas Northwood, and James C. Northwood, the only surviving one of the family. Northwood, Joseph Northwood, and Clint Northwood, of this city, and Herb Northwood, Richard M. Northwood, and Mrs. Ronald, of Detroit, and Alex. Northwood and Mrs. Pace, of the city of Windsor. There is no region in America richer in mineral springs than Colorado, while throughout the state there are pleasure resorts and splendid places of attraction of various kinds in great numbers. It has been truly said that all of Colorado is a health resort, and this statement is sustained by the most eminent physicians of the country. What with its beautiful cities on the plains, its gorgeous mountain peaks and lovely valleys, its awful canyons and their rushing torrents, its forests and streams, its broad green parks, and charming crystal lakes amid the mountains, what more could nature provide or man desire for his welfare or his delights. Not only the health-giving mineral and thermal springs, which gush spontaneously from the mountain sides invite the invalid and the weary, but in all the rest of these charms of nature is found a panacea for the ills and cares of body and mind diseased.

To enable persons to reach these favored localities without unnecessary expenditure of time or money, the Union Pacific has put in effect very low rates and splendid train service, three trains leaving Missouri River daily for Denver, one of which is "The Colorado Special," which is the finest train in the West. Accommodations are provided for all classes of passengers, the equipment including free reclining chair cars, dining cars, buffet, smoking cars, drawing room sleepers and day coaches.

Full information cheerfully furnished on application to G. G. HERRING, G. A., 126 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

PIONEER CHURCH

L. Heath has on exhibition in Tilt's art window, a painting of the first church built in Ontario, and the first Protestant church in Ontario and Quebec. The picture was painted by Miss Eva E. Chasterson, of Brantford.

It is called the Mohawk church, and is situated about a quarter of a mile from the city of Brantford. It was built by the government of George II., in 1785, the order being given by Governor Haldiman in Nov., 1784.

The contract for its erection was awarded to J. H. Smith, a U. E. Loyalist, who, assisted by his sons, cut the timber in the winter and built the church in the spring.

The tablets containing the Apostles' creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the ten commandments (in the Mohawk language), a bell (first to call the hour of prayer in Ontario), the Royal coat of arms, altar furniture and an organ were sent from England by the government in 1786. Of the last two items there are no traces left. The bell is still there, but broken, the others are in excellent order.

The church possesses a handsome solid silver communion service, presented by Queen Anne in 1812, and also a bible.

Prior to the year 1827 there was no resident incumbent of this church, the services were conducted by Aaron, a grey headed Mohawk, who had touched his cheeks and forehead with a few spots of vermilion in honor of Sunday. He wore a surplice and preached "Hall's Travels."

This old English church is still used as a place of worship.
