NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS

Natural Gas will be turned into the mains of this Company on February 15th next, on and after which date no artificial gas will be supplied.

In order to use Natural Gas it will be positively necessary for every gas consumer to have the piping in his house thoroughly tested with a pressure gauge at twenty pounds pressure. This is necessary on account of the Natural Gas being delivered at about three times greater pressure than artificial gas.

All stoves or ranges to be used for Natural Gas must have closed tops, and in every case a flue connection must be made from stoves to chimney.

While the manufacturers of gas stoves state that artificial gas stoves cannot be used for natural gas without being entirely rebuilt, it would appear from tests made at this Company's office that the artificial stove may be made serviceable with natural gas, by having a special closed top and flue connection made for the stove.
A stove specially made for natural gas and one specially made for artificial gas may be seen by any consumer at this Company's office; both connected with natural gas, where any explanations necessary will be given by the Company's officers. Any coal range or wood stove may be easily and simply connected by special burner to use natural gas at small expense.

To use Natural Gas for lighting, it will be necessary to use mantles on all jets, since natural gas has practically no illuminating value when used as an open flame.

All connections to stoves or hot plates must be made with iron pipe, and in no case should rubber or other tubing be used for connections.

While this Company will look after as far as possible, any orders entrusted to its care for connections to stoves, furnaces, base-burners, etc., it will be impossible for the Company, to take care of all its customers, and the public will find all the local dealers and gas fitters ready to take orders.

Consumers are requested to have their work done as rapidly as possible, so that there will be as little inconvenience as possible when the Natural Gas is turned on.

SOCIETY

On Tuesday evening Mrs. W. R.
Baxter, of Amelia street, entertained the ladies of the immediate neighborhood to a five o'clock tea in honor of Mrs. Leak, who is leaving to reside on Grand avenue west.

On Wednesday, the 16th inst., Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Johnson, of Victoria avenue, entertained at cards.

Mrs. Herbert Malcolmson gave a delightful bridge party on Monday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs.
Barber. Mrs. W. E. Rispin and Mr.
C. H. Gunn were the prize winners.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, King street west, was the hostess at a tea on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Barber was the guest of honor.

Miss Mary McKeough gave a lunch on Thursday afternoon for twelve of her girl friends.

Miss Irene Paterson, Stanley avenue, gave a bright military euchre on Tuesday evening. The prizes were won by the Misses Meta Wilson, Belle Smith, Nora Stephenson, and Messrs.
McGeeggy, Lawson and Gervin.

Miss Helen Rispin was the hostess at an informal dance given last evening for her guest, Miss Molson, of Toronto.

Mrs. George Cowan will entertain at point euchre on Tuesday evening.

Miss Gordon, of Oswego, N. Y., is visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. Gordon, King street west.

Miss Edith Ball leaves on Tuesday to visit friends in London and Toronto.

Mr. Bell, relieving teller for the Dominion Bank, of Dresden, was one of the guests at Miss Helen Rispin's dance last evening.

PASSED AWAY

James W. McLean, aged 34 years, passed away at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Wm. Whitebread, Violet street, at 5:30 last evening.
The deceased was a son of the late James McLean, of the River Road, Raleigh. His father passed away when the deceased was an infant.
Mrs. McLean moved to Wallaceburg, and later was united in marriage to Wm. Whitebread.

The late James W. McLean left Chatham eight years ago, and since had been conducting a merchant tailoring establishment in Loraine, Ohio, until last Christmas, when failing health forced him to retire from active business. He sold out his tailoring business and came to Chatham, where he had since been confined to his mother's home. He leaves a wife, but no family. Mrs.
McLean before marriage was Miss Jessie Jacobs, of Loraine.

He is survived by his mother and two sisters. The sisters are: Mrs.
Chester B. McDougall, of Wallace-burg, and Miss Lela Whitebread, at home. The deceased was at various times connected with the Chatham City Band, the Guelph Musical Society Band and the Loraine City Band.
He was very fond of music.

The funeral will take place at 2:30 Monday afternoon, from the family residence, Violet street, to the Maple Leaf Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Hodgins will officiate.

Councillor Geo. Johns

Stands By His Guns

city were doing. At this, the Clerk had objected to taking the position, on the ground that it would be impossible for him to make a report.
The speaker said that he had then inquired as to why the Council should not have a report from the Society. Mr. Johns then asked if Judge Bell, Judge Houston and Crown Attorney Smith were not on the Executive of the Society. This was a piece of information he had been unable to get at. He had no desire to assail the Children's Aid Society.

TAKES NOTHING BACK.

Councillor Johns said that it was at this juncture that he had mentioned that he knew of a case of neglect. What he had said relative to it he was prepared to back up, and he had nothing to retract.

Mr. Johns stated that a letter of complaint about the fallen woman in question, had been sent to the Crown Attorney. The gentleman who Dr. Gray spoke of as approaching him on the street relative to the matter was W. R. Hickey, of Eschwell. The matter had been referred to Mr. Hickey to counsel with Dr. Gray, Judge Houston and Crown Attorney Smith. Now it was a difficult thing to get the sworn evidence Dr. Gray asked for. Fast young women get a lot of sympathy, and no one wants to testify against them. They generally have so many friends that it is dangerous to make any move against them, and this case was no exception to the rule.

HAD SHADY HISTORY.

The girl in question had been accused of many crimes of a petty character. On one occasion she had walked deliberately into one of the hardware stores of the town, stepped behind the counter and extracted a five dollar bill from the till.
She had been jailed on in several other shoplifting escapades, and there were other charges against her, in all of which it would be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to secure anyone to give sworn evidence in connection with.

Mr. Johns said that during a conversation with Crown Attorney Smith, in Eschwell, that gentleman had told him there was a course open for the securing of evidence against the wayward girl. This course lay in getting the Chief of Police of Eschwell, who was familiar with the duties of which she did the pilfering, to tell what he knew, and Major Coogan would be assigned to lay an information. Mr.
Johns had afterwards spoken to the Chief of Police of Eschwell about the matter, and that official had immediately "went up in the air." He wanted to know right off what was trying to "knife" him. The girl's case had even been taken up by some of the ministers of the town.

HAD DEGRADING INFLUENCE.

The work of the Children's Aid Society, said Mr. Johns, was a laudable one, if fully carried out, but this was not the only case he could cite. He said that he could mention others, and he was prepared to do so if necessary. This girl's career was a degrading influence on the town. There were few other girls who could dress as she could, and it was with a view to preventing her evil influence that the agitation was started to have her removed. He had told the truth in connection with the affair, though not all the truth, but he could do no better.

Dr. Gray said that he was never aware of the fact that any clergymen of Eschwell had interested themselves in the case, and no complaint had been made to him by letter.

Mr. Johns—I did not mention Dr.
Gray's connection in connection with the case, and I am not blaming him.
Furthermore, Mr. Johns said he was not responsible for the publicity which the newspapers had given the case. The Planet, The Banner and The London Free Press had all made corresponding news of the affair, but of course he was not accountable for what sensation the papers made of it. It had been published broadcast all over the province. He was not looking for the publicity, nor desirous that the unsavory facts in connection with the affair should get into the public prints.

SOCIETY BLAMELESS.

The Warden asked if the Children's Aid Society did not receive a grant from the Government.

Dr. Gray—we receive no aid from the Government. I would like Mr.
Johns to admit that the Society, under the circumstances, are not to blame in this case.

Mr. Johns—I don't think they are.
I am sorry these things get out into the public prints, and I don't think that the papers should publish discussion on private matters of this nature. At the same time, I want to repeat that I take nothing back, which I said.

On concluding his remarks Mr.
Johns was given quite an ovation from his fellow-members at the Board.

STOCK-TAKING SNAPS

There are dozens of bargains in men's and boys' wear all over the store caused by our semi-you want anything in men's or boys' wear it will pay you to look here, the chances are you will run across it at much less than regular value.
