TAKE MY CURE, WHEN CURED YOU PAY ME

The fear that you could not be cured may have deterred you from taking honest treatment, or you may have been one of the unfortunate who have been treated in vain by inexperienced physicians, free treatments, free trial samples, patent medicines, electric belts and other similar devices. Such treatment cannot and will never cure you, nor will these malades cure themselves. When I offer you a cure, and an infallible one, you will not hesitate to take it, and have such faith and confidence in my continued success in treating these diseases that not a dollar need be paid until you are cured, a fair proportion cannot be offered to the sick and afflicted. This should convince the skeptical that I mean what I say, and do exactly as I advertise, as I am positive of curing you in the shortest possible time, without injurious after-effects. My charges will be as low as possible, for conscientious, skillful and successful services, and my guarantee is simple and true. I want to hear from patients who have been unable to get cured, as I guarantee a positive cure for all chronic nervous, blood and skin diseases, which I accept for treatment. I not only cure the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, blood poison, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, stomach troubles, etc. All medicines for patients are prepared in my own laboratory to meet the requirements of each individual case. All medicines for Canadian patients sent from Windsor, Ont., duty and transportation prepaid. I will send a booklet on the subject which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address simply, Dr. S. J. Prichard, 208 Woodward Ave., Suite 311, Detroit, Mich.

WON'T REMOVE EMBARGO.

Britain's Reply to Request of Canadian Government.

Ottawa, Sept. 2.—The Dominion Government has received a reply to the request to remove the embargo on Canadian cattle. The British Government, on a report of the British Board of Agriculture, has declined to do so. The report of the British Board of Agriculture sets forth that the embargo is no obstacle in promoting the trade in cattle between the colonies and foreign countries and Britain. The embargo has been in existence since 1879.

AN AMERICAN DISEASE.

Some doctors go so far as to say that indigestion is the national disease of America. There is but one national remedy for indigestion, and that remedy is Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which accelerate the action of gastric glands and give tone to the digestive organs. They strengthen the kidneys and liver, cleanse and purify the blood and thus add general tone to every organ of the body. Freshness and strength are fast restored and the patient can eat and digest any food he pleases. Test Dr. Hamilton's Pills yourself—25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00 at all dealers.

FEVER CRISIS PASSED.

Campaign of Science Against Yellow Jack Ends in Success.

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—Signed statements of all the leaders in the fever fight, indicating that the crisis has passed, that the campaign of science is meeting with unbounded success, and that the fever will be practically forgotten by frost, were printed here yesterday.

Death in Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 2.—The first death here from yellow fever occurred yesterday. The victim was stricken Sunday. No other new cases are reported.

WHEN SEVEN MEN DIE.

You know at least one of them had Consumption. At first it was only catarrh—but it was neglected. When "Catarrhoxone" cures so quickly it's foolish to suffer. It's a shame to keep on sniffing and hawking. Catarrhoxone goes direct to the cause of the disease, — that's why it's so dead certain to cure. It stops the cough, prevents that disgusting discharge, clears phlegm out of the throat in five minutes. Very pleasant, and safe, too; get Catarrhoxone from your druggist to-day.

Metal Workers to Strike.

New York, Sept. 2.—A strike of the sheet metal workers in this district was called Thursday night by the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Union. About 2,000 members attended the meeting, and the call for the strike was almost unanimous. The strike will affect about 200 buildings, which are in course of construction, and about 300 shops, in which the metal workers are employed. The men demand an advance of 50 cents a day.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

Recently a despatch from New York informed a startled world that the International Boundary surveyors found that Richard and Stevens' Mills, Vermont, with a population of over 4,000 were in Canada, and although Dominion Astronomer King promptly scotched the story next day, the following by J. E. M. in The Toronto News is clever enough to reproduce, even although it was written under a misapprehension: People of Richard, once in fair Vermont, But now in Canada, give us your ear—Dwellers in Stevens' Mills, it is our wish That ye this solemn dissertation hear. Now that the boundary sharps have granted you The greatest privilege men can ever win, List to the modern Decalogue, I pray, And as Canadians you will not sin.

THE FIREFLY.

Appreciation That Glows and Leaves Trail of Light Behind.

The night air of summer is resonant with the intensity of insect life. In every passing moment of stillness the fluttering hum becomes audible. Sometimes the buzz of a flying crab, the giant bug that seems impatient of its time in the air and eager to return to its home in the water, rises momentarily above the dull sound of diminutive insect life. The broad, undulating wings of the silk worm moth flap and out of the limit of horizon of the enclosing night. Every light is surrounded by a varied swarm of dazling insects, their diminutive forms casting sudden shadows along the ground and into the darkness. A bat dashes and out into the night, and from the upper air the muffled whistle of the invisible night hawk tells of the perpetual destruction of this swarming life. Close to the water against the invisible blackness of the banks of rushes, a firefly trails a momentary thread of light, says an aptly named writer in The Toronto Globe. The moving spark shows so distinctly and impressively in the darkness that the eye follows along its imagined course eager for its reappearance. There is a fascination in this combined mystery of light and life. It appears again, upsetting all calculations as to speed and direction. During the eclipse it must have loitered and wandered. The phosphorescent glow trails along another irregular course and goes out.

The great, placid, indolent moon looks over the marsh, lighting up the open spaces, a few waving rushes sharply silhouetted against the clear circle of light. Down where the level rays cannot penetrate the shadows seem to grow darker, and there the firefly trails again his play of vanishing and reappearing light. The spirit of the marsh is abroad, and these diminutive moving lights seem but struggling emanations from a great presence. The little span of light coming from the nowhere and vanishing into it again inspires the play of wondering fancies. It seems always emblematic of our own brief glance into the conscious universe. A muskrat swims across the open water, breaking its surface into a widening trail of quivering ripples, and the swift tangled threads of reflected moonlight chase one another away into the shadows of the dense banks of rushes. But the phosphorescent trail of the firefly drawn across the invisible background of shadow claims a keener interest than the more material life of the water and air.

The fireflies have only a few days of life in this aerial and luminous stage. They are then fully matured, and the bright glow that awakens so many fancies in the charm that brings them together in the fulfillment and perpetuation of their life. In their larval stage they are rotund, insignificant little crawlers, living in and upon the decayed trunks of trees. They might be mistaken for lady bugs that had lost their color in the close confinement of their prison. Some species are luminous in this stage, but the most familiar do not glow with light till they have passed through the inert chrysalis state and come forth in their perfection equipped for flight. The firefly lays over a hundred eggs, and these do not hatch out into larvae till the following spring. The glowing lights seem to be created and obscured at will as they seek their companions in the night. That moving glow impels the flight of wandering fancies. Fairies may pass away with the years of childhood, and the imaginary people of the night may fade into the light of common day, but the fireflies always inspire the creative fancy and transform the dim twilight into an evanescent and mysterious panorama.

Saved Sister by a Fish Hook. Eric Williams, the six-year-old son of Mr. H. Williams, merchant of Port Francis, Ont., was fishing at the lower dock at that place, accompanied by his sister Agnes, aged five years, when the latter fell into the water.

With rare presence of mind Eric dragged his line along till he hooked the little girl's dress and so pulled her along in the water to the edge of the wharf, whence he reached down and assisted her to safety.—Forest and Stream.

TRANSFERRED FREE OF COST.

Fortifications Must Be Held For Military Purposes Only.

Ottawa, Sept. 2.—A cable has been received from the Imperial Government stating that the Army Council recommended that the War Department should transfer to the Canadian Government free of charge all the fortifications in Nova Scotia, which the Dominion is prepared to take over for military purposes. Such fortifications, etc., must be held for military purposes only, otherwise they will revert to the British Government. Ammunition and small arms and supplies will be given at cost.

A "WHEEZY" CHEST.

Means your trouble is deep seated. To delay is dangerous. All the inflammation will be drawn out in one day by applying Nervine. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, relieves inflammation and thus prevents serious consequences. For sore throat, weak chest and tendency to colds, no preparation is better than Polson's Nervine. For nearly fifty years it has been Canada's greatest household remedy. Twenty-five cents buys a large bottle.

The things we are going to do are generally the things we brag most about.

"I feel as if I should fly to pieces." How often those words are on a woman's lips. They express to the uttermost the nerve-racked condition of the body, which makes life a daily martyrdom. If this condition had come suddenly it would have been unbearable. But the transition was gradual. A little more strain each day on the nerves, a little more drain each day of the vitality. Any woman would be glad to be rid of such a condition. Every woman tries to be rid of it. Thousands of such women have been cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment with his "Favorite Prescription," when local doctors had entirely failed to cure. "Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

Western Fair

THE EXHIBITION THAT MADE FALL AGRICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC

When Governor Simcoe laid the foundation of London, Ontario, one hundred years ago he knew it would grow to be a great city, but had no thought of the Western Fair.

The Western Fair gives the people of this country an excellent opportunity for a pleasant outing at a minimum of cost, and at the same time develops their store of practical and useful knowledge.

Its educational features have always been carefully fostered by the Directors. This year several important improvements of an instructive nature have been added.

The celebrated old Highland Regiment Band will give three concerts daily during the exhibition. The entertainment department will be better than ever, and will include leaping the gap in mid air on a steam automobile.
