Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live
some kind of a sermon every day.

THANKSGIVING DAY

MONDAY next, November 10th, has been set apart by the government as a Thanksgiving Day in Canada. The idea of devoting one day to the expression of our thankfulness to the Almighty for the blessings bestowed upon us during the past year, especially with regard to the bountiful harvest reaped from Mother Earth, is most appropriate.

We plough the fields and scatter
The good seed on the land;
But it is fed and watered
By God's Almighty hand."

We are ever inclined to grouch over mostly imaginary evils, and the weather, the crops and the results of our efforts generally are always regarded as perfectly proper objects of our complaint. What more reasonable than that during one day we should count up our blessings and return thanks for all the benefits which we enjoy.

All of us have much to be thankful for, and when we attempt to sum them up it is surprising to find how numerous they really are. Even for those who seem to have reaped nothing but failure there is not, at least, some cause to say—"Thank God, it's no worse". During the present season we in this favored land have escaped many of the calamities to which other places have been subjected. On the whole the earth has yielded good returns for the labor expended and as a people we enjoy more than our share of the good things of life. For the peace and plenty of this land of the Maple Leaf we have reason to be grateful. Let us seek to uphold the highest interests, noblest aims and ever hold to the principle of putting Right above might in this Canada of ours.

WEAR A POPPY ON ARMISTICE DAY

POPPY DAY—November 11th—we will all be wearing poppies. Poppies. We wonder if the significance of this little red flower is strongly enough engraved on our hearts. Back in the crowded days of war, during the long hot marches, during the agonizing wait for the zero hour, during the unrelenting bombardment, during the wet and the mud and the filth this little red blossom was the companion and the joy of our Canadian Tommies. Now that the din of battle has ceased and the burying party has long since completed its task, this same little red flower remains over there to watch over the graves of our boys. Surely we should all consider it a privilege once a year to wear a poppy, the flower which has done and still is doing so much for us.

But not only for this reason. As in the past, the poppies are this year made by disabled veterans here in Nova Scotia. Men who have lost their sight or the use of their limbs and whose only livelihood is obtained in this manner. Men who have the courage of heroes or they could not carry on. Men who need your support and your sympathy.

Wear a poppy on Armistice Day, November 11th, in memory of the boys who died that we might live; in recognition of the service the poppy is still rendering us in Flanders fields; and also to help and encourage those who left our shores in the prime of manhood and who returned broken, men who look into the future with dread but with a smile.

WILL GREATLY IMPROVE THE TOWN

THE PROGRESS that has been made during the present season in the work of filling in and reclaiming the property at what was formerly known as "mud bridge" indicates that with comparatively little effort and expense on the part of citizens a wonderful transformation might be made. Situated in practically the centre of the town the section has been for years a blot on an otherwise beautiful landscape and a detriment especially to the eastern section. In view of what has already been done and what might now be accomplished without any great difficulty if our people were so minded, THE ACADIAN puts forth the suggestion that a plan for the completion of this tract be desired work next summer be put into immediate operation.

With all due respect to the enterprise and public-spiritedness of citizens of Wolfville we venture the assertion that few communities would have permitted the work to have been so long delayed, when the advantages of its completion are so pronounced and apparent. As a sound business proposition the undertaking should appeal to those who have the best interests of the town at heart, as the value of the property to the town when reclaimed should be far in excess of the cost of the work.

USELESS PROFANITY

THE TROUBLE with profanity is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is just plain dirty. It is not so much that you shock religious people as that you disgust decent people, that we object to. Swearers are behind the times. They are holdovers from a former century. Nowadays anybody who swears is set down at once as being coarse and vulgar. The young man who wants to succeed needs to take advantage of everything that may help him on. Swearing will be a black mark against him in any job he may have. If he wants to associate with the right sort of girls he must keep his talk clean. Nobody wants a swearer in the office nor in the workshop, nor on the train, nor in the hotel. The only place swearing fits is the saloon. Swearing means you don't know how to talk. Your vocabulary is limited. It is the sign of ignorance. Swearing means weakness. You will notice that forceful men, whose words carry weight, use simple plain words. When you swear it shows your impotence. It is the petty refuge of the helpless. If you can help a thing, help it, if not, keep still; anyway don't swear.

DO YOU SUPPORT YOUR NEWSPAPER?

THERE IS nothing that calls attention and draws people to a town equal to a good newspaper. In order for a man to make a good newspaper he must have the patronage of the people among whom he lives. If he has halfway support it stands to reason that he must make a poorer newspaper, and in doing this every man in the town and surrounding country has to bear a portion of the loss. For this reason, if no other, the man who tries to make a good newspaper, should have the support of his own people, all of whom reap fully as much benefit from its efforts as he does himself.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When Hanging Paper.
So many amateur paper hangers (housewives) find it so hard to find a board long and wide enough to use to paste on, take down a closet door and use it, always spreading old newspapers lest you get paste on the door.

Softening Paint Brushes.
To soften a paint brush in which the paint has been allowed to dry, heat some vinegar to the boiling point, and allow the brush to simmer in it a few minutes. Remove and wash in soap-suds and the brush will be like new.

Wireless Cooker.
Dry your wireless cooker perfectly as soon as possible after the food is removed. Leave the cover slightly ajar until ready to use again, so that the air may get in.
