Centreville, N. B., Jan. 13—A flashy sea story was shown on Wednesday night here. The main roles were taken by George Marion an old sea-dog, who blamed all his doings, both evil and good, on "the old devil, sea," as he called it, by Blanche Sweet, who played the part of his daughter, who was always just what her father supposed her not to be, and by William Russell, who played the roistering braggard, that many young men of the sea develop into. Other minor parts were also very well done. An educational reel of merit was shown, of animal life. On Saturday evening Francis X. Bushman and his wife, Beverly Bayne were shown in an excellent picture, Modern Marriage, an exposé of many of the unions consummated today. Action and interest was extra good throughout this film, a mysterious murder in the second reel, keeping the audience guessing who did it, until the concluding reel. A juvenile comedy was added to the programme for good measure. A summary of this week's programmes will be found on page 7.

Rev. H. R. Bell will preach on Sunday, January 18, at Centreville, 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.; Carvell 3 p. m. Many friends of Mrs. S. W. Burt, are glad to know that she made a nice recovery from a badly infected finger, which gave her considerable concern last week.

Charles Wilkinson is making plans for a trip to California in the near future, to visit his son, George E., who lives in Westwood.

Burt Hawkins has leased the Hagerman store in Main Street and is making preparations for opening a first class bakery and restaurant in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lee entertained at bridge again on Friday evening. Guests filled six tables and included: Mr. and Mrs. LeR. T. Lee, M. and Mrs. C. H. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. London, Mrs. B. R. Field, Mrs. Roy Wildman, Mrs. A. R. Lee, Misses Dora Lee, Ritchie White, Messrs. Peppers, Hawkins, McCintock, Gibson, Nickerson, Andrews, Douglas, Page. The club played along merrily until one o'clock.

A good number of local Masons drove to Florenceville on Thursday evening, when the Master Mason degree was conferred on three candidates.

On Sunday, Jan. 18, Rev. E. Bridge-water will hold services as follows: St. Barnabas, Greenfield, matins, 11 a. m., Church of the Good Shepherd Florenceville, evensong, 3 p. m., St. James, Centreville, evensong, 7.30 p. m.

Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Burt of Fort Fairfield spent part of last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Burt.

C. A. Long has returned from the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, much improved in health.

Mrs. H. S. Burt of Woodstock is visiting her sister, Miss Bertie West.

Early Golf.

Speaking of golf, a correspondent says that Ananias must have been a golfer—at any rate, after a "bad lie" he "lay dead." Sapphira, too, he adds, for after a worse "lie" she "halved the hole."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Use the Want Ad Way

If you have anything to sell, a house to rent, money to loan; IF you want a position, or a farm or a store; IF you are in need of help for your farm or your business;

Then put a WANT AD in The Observer. It will make money for you. If you read our Want Ads you can save the price of your year's subscription to The Observer by saving money on some article advertised in our Want Ad column.

The Way you write your Want Ads has a lot to do with their effectiveness. State clearly just what you want to buy when you are advertising a farm or a house, etc., for sale; give the price and terms you will accept. If you want a position give your qualifications. Be explicit and to the point.

The Cost of these Want Ads is very small. Fifty cents for the first week and twenty-five cents for each additional week. No ad to exceed five lines, six words to the line. If over five lines the price is ten cents per line for first week and five cents per line for each additional week.

Money must always accompany the order. Please don't forget this as no ad will be charged. Address all communications to
