Whereas, the Legislative Council has agreed to surrender its separate powers and privileges...

In Ontario the additional representation given Toronto and Algoma has been equalized by the abolition of the constituencies of Monck and North Westworth...

Now it seems pretty evident that this was going too far; that such a step was ultra vires of the Provincial Legislature...

The question now arises did the Lieutenant Governor withhold his assent from the bill with the advice of his Executive...

There does not appear to be any good reason why we should not have the foreign mails, via Sumner, delivered by six o'clock in the afternoon...

The meeting held in the Market Hall, on Friday evening last, to protest against the Railway change, was an orderly and well conducted affair...

It is satisfactory to learn from our Ottawa advisers that Messrs. McDonald and McLean, the representatives for King's County, with the co-operation of our Senators, have no fear of prevailing upon the Government...

The Redistribution Bill now before Parliament has been recommended by the Opposition in a strong and pleasant mood.

As will be seen by reference to the report of the Commission...

It is not often one finds a system of waterworks in operation in a small city or town...

The Halifax Recorder of a few days ago contained a silly and false paragraph relative to the dimensions of the P. E. Island Railway...

A copy of the report of the trustees and medical Superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane for the year 1891 has been handed on...

Wednesday Hon. Mr. Bovey resumed the debate on the Carage charge. He started on by referring to the fact that the Leader of the House had been appointed...

Thursday Hon. Mr. Turner moved the second reading of a bill to make more stringent regulations respecting electioneering...

Friday Hon. Mr. Turner moved the second reading of a bill to make more stringent regulations respecting electioneering...

The report of the Commission on Public Accounts, as published in the Report of the 5th Sess., is a very interesting document...
