Turks Report Italian Reverse.

Special to Evening Telegram.
 LONDON, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Constantinople says—Italians are reported to have suffered a serious reverse outside of Tripoli. In reconnoitering they advanced too far from their base and came in contact with the Turks, who have battle and forced the Italians to retreat hurriedly. They left hundreds dead on the field.

The Turn of the Fifties

This Cabinet was nearly all born in the fifties: Mr. Borden in 1854, Mr. O'Brien in 1855, Mr. Burrell in 1855, Mr. Crothers in 1850, Mr. Nantel in 1857, Mr. Reed in 1859, Mr. Pelletier in 1858, Mr. Hughes in 1853, Mr. Monk in 1856, Mr. Cochrane in 1852, Mr. Roche in 1859, Mr. Hazen is just out of the class, being born in 1860, Mr. Foster is over the line on the other side, being born in 1847, and so the Nestor of the Cabinet, as the new Finance Minister, Mr. White, who is in his early forties, is its junior. It is worth thinking about that only one of the lot dates back beyond 1850. It means, no doubt, that most of the others who date from the fifties are seeing their chance for Cabinet honors slip away. There are quite a number of them among the men who didn't get called. There is W. F. Maclean, or instance, who is on the class of '54; and Andrew Broder, '45, and Mr. Asgrain, '52. It will be from the classes of the '60's and the '70's that men will find their way into the Cabinets of the future.

KNOWS NOW

Was Fooled by His Own Case for a Time.

It is easy to understand how ordinary people get fooled by tea and coffee. Doctors themselves sometimes get fooled. A physician speaks of his own experience: "I had used tea and coffee for years and really did not exactly believe it was injuring me, although I had palpitation of the heart every day. Finally, one day, a severe and almost fatal attack of heart trouble overtook me and I gave up both tea and coffee, using Postum instead, and from that time I have had absolutely no palpitation except on one or two occasions when I tried coffee. It caused severe irritation and led me to think that I must let it alone. When we began using Postum it was weak—that was because we were not making it according to directions. Now we put a little bit of butter in the pot when boiling and allow the steam to boil full 15 minutes which is the proper rich flavour and deep brown color. I have advised a great many of my friends and patients to leave off tea and coffee and drink Postum, and I daily give this advice. Name it by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. Any thousands of physicians use it in place of tea and coffee in their own homes and prescribe it to their patients. There's a reason. The remarkable little book, "The Remarkable Little Book," can be found in Guarding the Bank.

An Old Custom Still Maintained by English Officials.

Visitors to the Metropolis who happen to be in the vicinity of the Bank of England about half-past six in the evening may witness one of the most interesting customs in London. For it is at that time that a detachment of armed Guards march into the bank with fixed bayonets for the purpose of guarding the $100,000,000 in gold and silver with which the vaults of the "Old Lady of Threadneedle Street" are usually stocked. This custom dates back to the Gordon Riots of 1793 when it was deemed necessary to call in soldiers to prevent the mob from looting the bank. Since then the bank has been protected every night by a detachment of Guards.

The detachment usually numbers about 20 men, in parade dress, with fixed bayonets and loaded ammunition-belts, in charge of two sergeants and a lieutenant. These are the only troops that have the privilege, on ordinary occasions, of marching through the City of London with fixed bayonets.

For guarding the bank the soldiers receive extra pay, which is given to them as soon as they enter the bank each night. Privates and drummers get 1s. each, corporals, 1s. 6d. and sergeants, 2s. 6d. This sum is exclusive of the subaltern's allowance. The aggregate cost of guarding the Bank of England is about $5,000 per annum.

The bank authorities do all they can for the soldiers' comfort. They provide them with extra blankets for the winter, and a selection of books; while the lieutenant in charge has a snug little room, a dinner being brought in to him from a neighbouring tavern. He is also allowed to entertain two guests, the only stipulation being that they must depart before midnight.

Falling any emergency call, the majority of the soldiers merely perform duty-go once a night for an hour. They are posted throughout the hours of the bank and in the courts, the sentries being increased in the middle of the night, and remaining on duty till the detachment returns to barracks at six o'clock in the summer and seven in the winter.

With regard to the lieutenant, there is a curious stipulation that he shall only have one bottle of wine for himself and two for each of his guests, while the regulation is that each soldier shall not be allowed more than one pint of stout from the small canteen which has been established inside the bank for the convenience of the night guard.

Makes Hair Grow.

McMurdo & Co. have an invigorator that will grow hair or money back. The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of.

If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears. The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed. A large bottle for 50c.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that snuffs the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

SALVIA is sold by McMurdo & Co., under a positive guarantee to cure Dandruff, stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp in ten days or money back. A large bottle costs 50c. The word "SALVIA" (Latin for sage) is on every bottle.

The fish in the Dill River at Dorlar, Eng., were seen behaving in a very peculiar manner, recently. Some of them were swimming backwards and others up and down. Investigations showed that they were badly intoxicated. The explanation is that the alcohol from an adjoining yeast factory had been thrown into the river, and in such great quantities as to have a demoralizing effect on the river inhabitants.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

The summer's gone, where summers stray—the summer gay and blight and rosy! And now the autumn's on its way to that dim bourne where autumns mosey. The flies are dead—those playful elves, whose antics made us sore and curly; and now we'll have to hump ourselves and do our Christmas shopping early. There are some duties that I hate in this dark world of woe and weeping, some jobs which make my molars grate when I'm awake and when I'm sleeping. Some tasks we have to do are bores, in life's unpleasant hurly-burly; we hate to chase around the stores and do our Christmas shopping early. That slogan's dinned into our ears by tiresome journalistic preachers until it fills our eyes with tears, for we are poor, weak, human creatures. Such preaching gives us all the blues, and makes our tempers short and curly; so let us one and all refuse to do our Christmas shopping early.

Jiu-Jitsu Wrestling.

RULES OF THE GAME.

In jiu-jitsu wrestling, twisting of fingers and digging knuckles into tender parts of the anatomy is not allowed. The object aimed at is to obtain a lock on your opponent which will make it impossible for him to continue the struggle, except at the risk of a broken joint or other equally serious discomfort.

The neck locks used put pressure on the carotid arteries, thereby causing unconsciousness. One soon comes to, however, and no ill effects remain; it is not followed by a nasty headache, as a knockout blow in boxing, although for the time being your opponent is just as effectually disabled.

The other locks chiefly attack the shoulders, elbow and knee joints; some are ineffective against a strong man, others more effective by reason of his strength.

Strength and weight, although they are invariably important factors in physical contests, do not give anything like the advantage in this method of wrestling they do in other styles. In fact the secret of success is to turn your opponent's weight and strength to your own advantage.

The rules governing matches are briefly, in addition to those common to all methods of wrestling, which provide against hitting, kicking, butting, etc., as follows:

Pressure or leverage must be applied gently, gradually increasing until your opponent is forced to give signal admitting defeat; that is, lapping twice, or by word of mouth. On his so doing it must be instantly eased up.

There can be no question as to result. No argument as to whether it was fairly done or not; the beaten man himself acknowledges defeat; if forced by the utter helplessness of his position. On making the signal he is released and is ready to continue the struggle unharmed.

At the C. L. B. Armoury Friday night lovers of wrestling will have the first opportunity of witnessing jiu-jitsu.

Klark Urban Company.

Much anticipation is already shown over the engagement of the Klark Urban Company at the T. A. Hall commencing next Monday evening.

The fact that such famous plays as "Capt. Clay of Missouri," "Came Kirby," "In the Bishop's Carriage," "The Belle of Richmond," "The Little Gray Lady," "A Woman's Sacrifice" and "Zeke, the Country Boy" are to be presented at popular prices, carries more than the ordinary weight to an engagement of this kind. No similar attraction has ever attempted; repertoire as pretentious as this or one that involves so great care in the general mounting of the plays. The complete scenic effects are carried for each and every play and no local settings will be used from the opening bill Monday evening.

High-Priced French Newspapers.

Paris, Oct. 11.—A scheme is on foot to start in Paris the highest priced daily newspaper of the present day. It is to be called LeJournal International, and is to be published in French, and is to be sold at ten cents a copy. The object of the publication is to regard political affairs from a strictly international standpoint, and for that purpose an international advisory board is to meet once a year to consider the policy of the journal. Lord Wardlaw, for Great Britain, George Brandes for Denmark, Count Albert Apponyi for Hungary, and Baroness Von Stunner for Austria, are members of the board, and Theodore Stanton, an American journalist, as editor. A large premises has been taken in Paris, and it is stated the newspaper will be started in February.

WINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISEASES.

Harbor Grace Notes.

The Road Board has a number of men engaged repairing the roads damaged by the late freshets, rain storms, &c.

We are pleased to see the genial Dr. Parsons out again after his recent illness. The doctor contracted a severe cold by being caught in one of the rain storms while visiting some of his patients. All our citizens are glad to see him out again.

Mr. John Butt, of the Post Office staff, has been given a month's holidays and leaves by the express this evening for Sydney, C.B., on a visit to his brother and other friends. We trust John will thoroughly enjoy his "picnic."

Mrs. Chas. Ash and Miss Susie Noel leave by this evening express for Boston, the former on a visit to her son and daughters there, and the latter to again take up work there after a pleasant summer spent at the old home.

Farmers are now busily engaged in getting crops out of the ground. Owing to so much rain this has been delayed somewhat. But weather prophets think we will have a couple of weeks of good weather now.

Mr. Albert Rogers went out by yesterday's early train for St. John's, and expects to return to-night.

The photo taken by Mr. R. T. Parsons of the cholera of Victoria Street School was shown yesterday, and is a very pretty one, reflecting much credit on the talented photographer. It will no doubt be cherished by each child and treasured when the scholars are probably scattered over the world.

The flag of the C. B. B. Society is today floating at half mast out of respect and in mourning for the death of one of its oldest members, Mr. John Verge, who died this morning.

The many friends of Mrs. William Walsh will be glad to know she is improved considerably in health and was able to be about town yesterday the first time for years.

CORRESPONDENT.

Asked for Pledge From King George.

London, October 10.—Viscount Halifax, speaking at Aberdeen, in Scotland, last night, referred to the speech delivered on Saturday, at Haddington by Mr. Balfour, in which the latter referred to the "felon blow" contained in Mr. Asquith's "traitorous advice." Lord Haldane said: "We made no bargain. It would be very unbecoming to make a bargain with the King. We did not ask any pledge of the King. We only said that we must have an understanding as to the real issue which was being submitted to the nation. The King took the only course which a Constitutional monarch could take and that was to say: 'What the country decides, that will I accept.'"

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS

And find out if you have kidney disorders—Also make this test. Have you pains in the back over the kidneys? Have you urinary disorders? Do you suffer from severe headaches, dizziness or defective eyesight? Is the skin dry and harsh? Are you falling in health and strength, and suffering from rheumatic pains or swelling of the limbs? These are a few of the symptoms of kidney disease, and here is the test. If the urine after standing for twenty-four hours is cloudy, milky or has particles floating about in it, or if there is a sediment in the bottom of the vessel, your kidneys are diseased. There is no time to lose in beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They will help you more quickly than any treatment you can obtain, and that is one reason why they are so successful and popular. Dr. A. W. Killed at Montreal.

On Tuesday Mrs. Byrne, wife of Sergeant Byrne, received a message from her sister, Miss Margaret Finch, from Montreal, saying that her son, Robert Finch, Mrs. Byrne's nephew, had received dangerous injuries while working at Point St. Charles. Yesterday a further message was received stating that the poor fellow had died of his injuries. Robert Finch was the son of the late Joseph Finch, of Hamilton Street, was a fine, able young chap, only in his 20th year, and was well known here having left here with his mother and family about a year ago. The body will be brought here for interment, and before burial will be lodged at 246 Hamilton Street. To Mrs. Finch and Mrs. Byrne and the other relatives the Telegram extends its condolences.

Horse Kill by Auto.

A valuable horse belonging to the Reid Nfd. Co. was killed near the Cross Roads by Mr. Collishaw's automobile about 6.30 last evening. Mr. Collishaw who was motoring to his home on Waterford Bridge Road, accidentally collided with the Reid Nfd. Co. express with horse attached. Two carriages were lined up on the south side of the road with their lights burning. In order to avoid them Mr. Collishaw kept to the other side and in doing so ran into Reid's express horse which was coming out the road at a fair speed. The horse was knocked down and its two fore legs broken. The driver, a man named Baird, was thrown out over the head of the wagon, the front part of which flew over the motor and passed close to Mr. Collishaw's head and knocking off the hat of Mr. H. Crowe who was seated in the auto behind Mr. Collishaw. The motor car was badly damaged in the front and side. Mr. Collishaw, who claims that there were no lights on the express, shut off the power as quickly as possible and brought the car to a standstill. Neither Baird nor the man with him was injured.

Crushed Between Cars

J. Mason, working in the R. N. Co. railway yard, had a close call yesterday afternoon. He was working at the cars and had stooped between two of them to pick up something from the ground. When he raised his head he saw that the cars were coming together and he ducked again. One of his ears was caught between the juffers and torn almost from its place. He was taken to O'Mara's drug store where the wound was dressed by Dr. Campbell. Had he been half a second late in withdrawing his head his skull would have been crushed like an egg shell.

More Fish For Europe.

Co. This will be the fourth cargo of fish to be shipped per steamer by this company during the season.

The Victims of the Liberte.

National Funeral to 185 Men.
 Paris, Oct. 3.—Impressive scenes were witnessed at Toulon to-day, when 185 men who were killed by the explosion in the Liberte were accorded a national funeral.

Among those who took part in the funeral were the officers and men of the battleship Exmouth, a great impression being created by the presence of the British sailors.

President Fallieres sent the following telegram to King George:—
 Profoundly touched by your Majesty's noble thought in causing the British Navy to be represented at the obsequies of the victims of the explosion on September 25 and to share the mourning of our fleet, I assure you of the deep gratitude of France and of the Government of the Republic. FALLIERES.

The President arrived at Toulon shortly after ten o'clock this morning and was received by the local authorities and by Sir Edmund Poe, commander of the Exmouth, representing the British Navy. M. Fallieres drove immediately to the Palace d'Armes, where 24 gun carriages bearing 185 coffins were in waiting.

The coffins were covered with Tricolours, and on the top of them were placed the uniforms of the dead men. After the Bishop of Frejus had pronounced the Benediction the cortege formed up and began its progress through the town to the arsenal. At its head marched the crews of the Toulon squadron, escorting a magnificent array of wreaths, more than 2,500 in number, and including those offered by the President as well as the officers and crews of the British squadron at Malta.

The gun-carriages were preceded by a battery of artillery, six companies of infantry, and the sailors and marines of the Exmouth, the sailors wearing straw hats and the marines white helmets. The mourners were headed by a detachment of gendarmes from M. Fallieres, members of the Cabinet, deputies, senators, foreign naval attaches, municipal authorities, and the clergy. Enormous crowds lined the route, many of the spectators being moved to tears.

ATTILLA'S REPAIRS.—The Attilla is getting a thorough overhauling above decks. The work is being done by Mr. S. Butler's men. They are caulking the decks all over and putting up a new foretopmast and a mainboom.

STEAMERS LYING UP.—The S. S. Bellaventure and S. S. Bonaventure are now lying up and will remain at anchor till the seal fishery season.
