HERRING REPORTED.—Although herring are reported in the coves along the Narrows and down the shore, very little effort is being made by the fishermen to catch them; some small lots were sold in the local market yesterday for 40 cents per dozen.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Captain Thomas LeGrow of Bay de Verde is in town to-day.

The schooner "Imprimus," Captain M. Pelley left port on Wednesday last for St. John's, having been on dock and had necessary repairs effected.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Fynn, took place yesterday from her son's residence, Harvey Street, when all that was mortal was laid to rest in the Church of England cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

The Methodist annual Sale of Work, which took place at Coughlin Hall on Wednesday and Thursday night's of this week was highly successful, the total proceeds amounting to $450.

The schooner "Cote Nord" arrived in port Wednesday with coal to Messrs. R. D. McRae & Sons. She is a new vessel, and besides having the latest model motor engines, is also equipped with wireless.

The death took place at his home yesterday of a well known resident in the person of Mr. Cuthbert Martin. The deceased carried on the fishery business at the Labrador for a number of years, and later at Harbor Grace Island, and he was also an old time seal skinner at Messrs. Murray & Crawford. He was a good hard-working industrious man, and followed up his labours until ill-health prevented him. He leaves to mourn a wife and one step-son, Mr. Charles Martin, residing here, and two daughters living in the U.S.A. The funeral, which was very well attended, a guard of honor from the Orange Society being present, took place this afternoon, interment being at the Church of England cemetery. To the sorrowing family the town extends sympathy.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday night last, the contracting parties being Miss Jennie Wells, daughter of Mrs. and the late Capt. Jas. Wells of Bristol's Hope, and Mr. Llewellyn Ash, son of Mr. Augustus Ash of the West End, the Rev. W. H. Browning officiating. We wish the young couple bon voyage over the matrimonial sea of life.

The Rink on Harvey Street opens to-night, and we trust the ice will be in good condition so that the young folk can enjoy themselves to the fullest.

DESCRIBES HIS DAUGHTER'S CURE FROM ECZEMA.

I am more than grateful since using your wonderful D.D.D. for Eczema. My little girl was troubled with Weeping Eczema. I used everything but to no use and I thought D.D.D. would be of no use either. My girl's head became so bad I had to clip her hair off and keep her from school. She got sores all over her body. I used 6 bottles and I am proud to say she is cured. Not a pimple or rash and her skin is clear and white and all the itching gone. I will recommend D.D.D. to anyone I know who is troubled with Eczema. I am ever so happy and thankful for your wonderful cure.

FORWARD-LARNER.

A quiet but beautiful ceremony took place here on Tuesday evening last at 7 o'clock, at the Presbytery, when Rev. Father Savin, P.P., Argentina, in the presence of a few friends, united in the Holy Sacrament of Matrimony William J. Lerner, manager of the Anglo-American Telegraph Office, Whitbourne, and Alma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Forward, Burgeo. The bride, who was becomingly and charmingly attired, was attended by Miss Gertrude Lerner, sister of the groom; the groom being supported by Mr. W. F. Ryan. After the ceremony a few friends and immediate relatives were entertained at dinner at the residence of the groom's mother. Numerous gifts and congratulatory messages received, testify to the popular esteem in which both parties are held. The happy couple left by Wednesday morning's train for Whitbourne, where they will reside. They take with them the good wishes of a large circle of friends, in a further expression of which the Telegram asks to be included.

Ptomaine Poisoning.

Last midnight Dr. Roberts had an emergency call to a residence in the suburbs, where a family of four children had been taken suddenly ill. After a hurried examination the Doctor pronounced the illness due to food eaten and that the children had been poisoned. Emetics and other remedies were resorted to and after a while the children came through O.K. They had, however, eaten nothing that would cause suspicion.

New Heaven and New Earth.

In his latest proclamation of principles Leon Braunstein, or Trotsky as he now wishes us to call him, advocates the immediate application of force to hasten the world's overthrow of the capitalist, the landowner and the educated, in order that the wage-earners we know as "laborers" may bear rule. A new heaven and a new earth will be set up he believes when what he has already accomplished in Russia,—which he has wrecked in the process—is accomplished everywhere. He finds no room in his new earth for religion. He is at deadly war with religion of every sort. Nor does he believe in morality. It is the materialistic elements, apart altogether from the spiritual and the mental, he is concerned with. Give men food and governing power and they are happy is his theory, dangerous only because it is evidence of his intense single-mindedness. The man with a single definite aim is ever an adversary to beware of. But his principle has been proven a failure in all history. The Kingdom of Persia, the mighty Empire of Assyria, Ancient Greece and Imperial Rome were laid in the dust because the enervating influences of wealth and material prosperity choked the spiritual expansion of the peoples and sapped their normal sense. Selfishness never yet exalted a nation. A Bolshevism which casts out morality and religion, and has the self-interest of the individual alone in view cannot exalt a people. Nothing but righteousness will or can give lasting stability to national or individual undertakings.—Family Herald and Weekly Star.

Is He
Seventeen
or Eighteen?

Do you remember those ages, when your character was being formed—how you followed examples, did what other people did—your senior years at school—your start in business? Recall them if you can. You gained a knowledge you will find useful when your own boy starts out.

Give him the right start. Teach him the value of personal appearance and self respect. Tell him how confidence may be gained merely from a clean shave—or, better still, show him—and show him in a practical way.

Give him a

GILLETTE Safety Razor

and make his morning shave come easy. The old time pulling and scraping is a thing of the past. The haphazard element is gone. There is no need for your boy to know anything but the ease and comfort of the Gillette shave. It is the razor of his time—that to which he is entitled—nothing more, nothing less.

Sold at most stores catering to the needs of men.

Fortunes Due to Accident.

The burning down of a starch factory revealed the adhesive qualities of scorched starch and introduced cheap gum. The upsetting of a tool-chest gave the world cast-iron cement. The accident of a child playing with a bottomless oil-lamp, idly placed over the flame of an oil lamp, gave birth to the lamp chimney. The value of borax as a preservative was discovered by a traveller in Yellowstone Park, U.S.A. He found the body of a horse, wonderfully preserved, and noted that it was lying in a field of borax. A boy of seventeen attending a "spirit-rapping" seance, found that the table stood upon two brass rails running across the stage. He suspected electricity and taking a piece of insulated wire, the ends of which were open, he laid it across the two brass rails and the "spirit" ceased to rap. Year afterwards this early experiment came into his mind and led to the automatic system of signalling used on railways. Blotting paper resulted from a batch of paper being made accidentally without size. The accident made a fortune for the lucky man.
