Despatches to the Evening Mercury

American Despatches.

Fort Wallace, Kansas, Sept. 23.—Colonel Forsyth's camp 90 miles north of here was attacked by Indians. Lieut. Beecher is dead. Dr. Munro was mortally wounded and is dying, and Col. Forsyth is nearly as bad. They are lying there with the Indians all around them, eating their horseflesh and waiting for relief. They will be reinforced to-night.

St. Louis, Sept. 23.—Despatch from Little Rock, Arkansas, says that Capt. Mason was assassinated on the 19th inst. by the Ku-klux Klan, one negro in Lewisburg, and three in Columbia Co., have been killed recently, and several churches burned by the Klan.

New York, Sept. 24.—The Herald's London special says that the Madrid Gazette says that Ibery has arrived on the north side of the Sierra Morena with two regiments of cavalry, eight battalions of infantry, and four batteries of artillery. The revolutionary General Sorano with a large force was marching on Cordova, to give battle to the Royal troops. Great excitement prevailed in Madrid, and it was believed that the success of the Revolutionists was certain. Queen Isabella signified her willingness to abdicate if the Revolutionists would accept the young Prince of Asturias as King—she to act as Regent until he obtains his majority. The Revolutionists, however, refuse any compromise, and demand the expulsion of the Bourbons, and the establishment of a Constituent Assembly and Provisional Government.

PER ATLANTIC CABLE.

Paris, Sept. 23.—Madrid is quiet. Estrada has been made Minister of Marine. News from the Provinces contradictory. The Queen attempted to return to the capital, but finding the roads in possession of the enemy, was obliged to return to San Sebastian, where she still remains. The rebels everywhere are proclaiming Espartaco President.

Ex-Prime Minister Bravo and his colleagues have arrived in France. London, Sept. 23.—The Times Paris letter says—General Prim has started from Paris. He met the recently exiled Generals at Cadix, Captain Malcampo, of the Spanish iron-clad Saragoza, who has declared for the insurgents, brought his guns to bear on the barracks at Cadix, and compelled the royal troops garrisoning the city to surrender the city. Having pronounced the revolution, each General called to prearranged points on the coast, where each raised the standard of insurrection, and set the movement on foot in his appointed theatre of operation.

London, Sept. 23 9 p. m.—The following news from Madrid is official. Gen. Novallirkes of the royal army is at the head of a large force, and has gone to Andalusia. Troops have also been sent to Santander.

The following additional news has been received from Spain.—The fortified town of Sontoga in the province of Santander, has pronounced for the revolutionists. The railroads and telegraph lines in the south eastern part of Spain have been cut, and rapid communication is destroyed and the excitement in Madrid is increasing.
