The Port Hope Canadian gives the following frightful picture of the results of intemperance at that place: A party of tour, named respectively Brooks and Bew, with their wives, left town on Wedneedsy evening, 14th inst., in a drunken state, taking two quarts of whiskey with them. On arriving at Bew's house, in the neighborhood of Welcome, they commenced drinking and dancing until they could no longer stand, Brooks, with Bew and his wife rolled into one bed, while Mrs. Brooks lay on the floor beside the stove. About two or three o'clock in the morning, a stick fell out of the stove and ignited her dress. The fire woke her up from her stupor, and she cried for help, but the other three were too drunk to render proper assistance; as the result, the unfortunate woman was left by the fire a blackneed, scorched, lifeless victim of intemperance.

Bigany.—A man named Johnson, aged fifty years, who followed the profession of dentist, settled down in Ainleyville about a year ago, with a woman he said was his wife. But a few days since a lady appeared who claimed to be Johnson's lawful wife, and said that he had deserted her at Newmarket. Mrs. Johnson followed in the evening, and the chattels which he left behind him were disposed of at auction by No. 1, who pocketed the proceeds and departed.

RUNAWAY — WAGGONS SMASHED. —
This forenoon a team belonging to Mr.
Durance, of Waterloo, took fright and started from the residence of Mr. Bater, Glasgow street, and on reaching Paisley street they dashed towards the town at a furious rate. When near Renton's black smith shop they ran against a tree smashing the waggon to pieces and seriously injuring one of the horses. In their mad career they ran against another waggon
the axle of which was also broken.

JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING. — Mr. Effingham Wilson, the well known publisher of the Royal Exchange, London, England, in a work on authorship, publishing, advertising, &c., makes the following pointed remarks; —"Of this you may be sure, that any journal that inserts advertisements cheap, is, in fact, a worthless medium. If it were really a good one, it would have no need to lower its prices, for its sheet would be filled without that sacrifice. You may lay it down as a rule, that every journal knows its value, and that if it adopts low prices, it is because it is conscious that it has a low circulation, either in number or respectability."

THE GOLDEN LION

T IS certainly marvellous that any community should be so excited over the great success that has attended the efforts of MRE. REOGG to obtain in the first Manufacturing Districts of the Yorld the very excellent povel and substantial fabrics in all of the various classes of

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods & Millinery,

Shawls, Bonnets and Mantles,

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

Buffalo Skins, Grain Bags, &c.

Indeed everything in the Mercantile line usually kept in a first-class establishment. That MR. HOGG'S efforts have been crowned with unprecedented success is beyond a doubt. The great Bargains that he is daily giving causes his immense establishment to be crowded from early morning until night. His stock to select frem is so large and varied that parties get suited without codes directive tasks be ever so difficult; and in addition, by being able to import all of his goods directirom the Manufacturers, 50 offer a saving of 12½ per cent (12½ cents on every dollar,) over any establishment in Town.

All classes and descriptions of Clothing made to order by a first-class cutter, and sent free of charge any part of Canada.
