

A Great Advantage "SPLITS" OF Apollinaris

BOGUS KNIGHT CHAMPION LANCER; BESTS DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH; IS DISCOVERED

London, August 4.—To the Duke of Marlborough was awarded the gold cup as the best knight in football at the Elizabethan tourney.

Captain Frederick Edgar Guest, lately of the First Life Guards, and crack polo player who married Miss Amy Phillips of Pittsburgh, came very near riding off with the much coveted trophy, for which these modern knights were ready to risk a rib or two. Their lances were blunt.

It had been arranged that Lord Ashby St. Ledgers, Captain Guest's eldest brother and Lord Wimburn's heir, should break a lance at the tourney with the Duke of Marlborough. Preceded by his equires, the supposed Lord Ashby St. Ledgers entered the lists with much ceremony.

The heralds, after decorative blarney, announced him "Sir Knight Lord Ashby St. Ledgers." Then appeared Marlborough with equal pomp.

Necessarily the knights were their visors down, their wives, even their most insistent creditors, would not have known them. The heralds sounded the attack. Lord St. Ledgers and the duke charged each other fiercely. The lance of "Lord St. Ledgers" put so deep a dent in the duke's breastplate it

STARCH, CORN SYRUP AND GLUCOSE COMBINE WAXING FAT THROUGH ADVANTAGEOUS LAWS

Get Their Raw Materials From the United States Free of Duty, and are Enabled by the Tariff Protection They Enjoy to Control the Trade

Winnipeg, August 5.—There is no question which is more directly vital import to the great mass of people today than the question of the increased, and increasing, cost of living. Where are prices going to stop? is a query which comes home to everybody. There are many causes of this, but one of the most important is the action of the increased cost of living materials which are to be classed among the necessities of life.

A combine in this Dominion which has a better equipped apparatus than any which is enabled by the protective tariff law to control the supply of starch, glucose and corn syrup.

Three factories in Canada. There are in Canada three factories, one at Cardinal, one at Port Credit, and one at Bramford, all in the Province of Ontario, engaged in the manufacture of these commodities. The factories at Cardinal and Port Credit are manufacturing starches, glucose and corn syrups; the factory at Bramford manufactures starch only. The tariff protects these three factories against competition from the United States as follows:

Duty on starch 2-1/2c per lb. or on each car of 30,000 lbs. $450.00

Duty on glucose 2-1/2c per 100 lbs. or on each car of 30,000 lbs. $450.00

Duty on corn syrup 2-1/2c per 100 lbs. or on each car of 30,000 lbs. $450.00

Against shipments from England the duty is as follows:

Duty on starch, 4c per lb. or on each car of 30,000 lbs. $200.00

Duty on syrup and glucose, 4c per 100 lbs. or on each car of 30,000 lbs. $120.00

In levying the duty of 1-1/2c per lb. and 1c per lb. on the starch is included.

Let us consider to what extent these Canadian manufacturers are protected by the tariff on the percentage basis. Starch in bulk at the factories in Ontario before being packed up for the trade costs the manufacturer an average of $2.16 per 100 lbs. The duty on importations of starch from the United States is 1-1/2c per lb. or 61 per cent on the cost to the Canadian manufacturer.

Thus we have only three Canadian factories making starch, corn syrup and glucose, protected to the extent of 81 per cent, and 41 per cent on starch, and 31 per cent, and 20 per cent on importations of corn syrup and glucose from the United States and England.

Needless to say, with this enormous protection, a very small quantity of starch, corn syrup and glucose is imported into Canada from the United States or England.

No Competition Again we find that the factories at Cardinal and Bramford are owned and operated by one company, the factory at Port Credit being separate and distinct. The three factories work under one price list, and for years there has been no competition whatever between the factories as to prices. All quote the same price to the trade on starch, syrup and glucose.

Starch is used extensively in the home for cooking and laundry work and is also used very extensively in the steam and hand laundries throughout Canada. Corn syrup is used extensively in the homes in the cities on the farms, and on the plains. Glucose is used extensively in the manufacture of candy, jams and jellies. In fact, the consumer is hit by the duty from all points of the compass.

Further, it is pointed out that the raw material for the manufacture of laundry and culinary starches, glucose and corn syrup is corn. Not a

SHOCKED INTO SWOON BY SERPENTINE DANCERS

Staid City Father of Shardsburg, Pa., Faints at Sight of Carnival Nymphs

Extremely Indignant When Revived and Orders Performers to Don More Clothes

Pittsburg, Aug. 5.—It required the united efforts of the Mayor and his two serpiente assistants, almost entirely unaided by costume, to send John L. Gribben, a burgess, of Shardsburg, into a swoon during the performance of the Empire Carnival Shows in that staid and God-fearing village last evening.

Fainting is not one of Mr. Gribben's specialties. But when the light fantastic trio emerged from the placid village father without any warning, he swooned.

The women are soap-boxing the entire state and are borne from town to town by huge automobiles that rag with yellow bunting and anti-skulls. They are closely pursued by the few anti who manage to survive the sweep of suffrage enthusiasm.

In many towns the suffragists and anti clash on opposite corners of the same street, so close and hot is the combat.

A Real Mayor In Cleveland, Mayor Baker played a dramatic part in the fray by refusing to allow the anti to display their picture scene which portrayed some of the dire evils which have arisen solely from the feminine ballot in those places where it is a reality.

In Toledo the suffragists won out again when Mayor Whitlock offered to allow the anti to display their picture scene which portrayed some of the dire evils which have arisen solely from the feminine ballot in those places where it is a reality.

Some more political tactics have come to light in the progress of the battle. In Cincinnati the lawn party proved to be a successful ringer. Dresses of the very prettiest, some of the suffragists chattered and laughed either have to take on some clothes or take off the act, that being very nearly the only thing left to take off.

TWO MEN ARE LOOKING FOR SAME HELPMATE

Tacoma, Aug. 5.—Two Englishmen, whose names are withheld by C. E. Lucas Agassiz, British vice-consul, are today searching for their one wife. Husband No. 1 says the woman deserted him on a ranch in British Columbia, and he found husband No. 2, a beguiling blonde of the same woman on a ranch in eastern Washington. She is suing husband No. 2 for divorce and getting $50 a month temporary alimony. They have not found her yet.

AMERICAN OFFICER IS INVOLVED IN SCANDAL

San Francisco, Aug. 5.—Captain J. P. Spurr, U. S. A., owing to alleged indiscretions indulged in at Honolulu when quartermaster of the army transport Sherman, was relieved of his post and will be succeeded today by Captain Frank D. Ely.

The action of the war department came as a surprise, and is said to have been prompted by an officer higher up, whose daughter, while a passenger on the Sherman, was shown undue attention by Captain Spurr.

VANCOUVER WILL DOLL UP WHEN THE DUKE COMES

Public Holiday Will Be Declared and Many Functions Will Take Place

Will Expend $10,000 on Decoration and Have an Architect in Charge

Vancouver, Aug. 4.—Partial arrangements for the programme of the visit to Vancouver of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were made this morning by the committee appointed by Mayor Findlay, and these will be submitted by telegram to the Governor-General for his approval.

No far as was tentatively decided there will be a reception of the Royal visitors at the C. P. R. station by the mayor and aldermen on their arrival on the afternoon of September 15. After this they will drive away by way of Granville street, Hastings, Main, Pender, Burrard and Georgia to the new Court house, opposite which the presentation of a civic address will be made.

The route will be lined by members of the various military regiments, the mounted police and the police, and during the drive the streets named will be rigidly closed against all vehicular traffic.

Chief Chamberlain will make arrangements to clear the thoroughfares some little time before the distinguished visitors drive along them.

After the presentation of the address the Duke and Duchess, if they desire, will be taken for an auto ride around Stanley Park and thence to their residences, wherever they be arranged to be, and the rest of the day and evening will be left for them to dispose of as they please.

One or two other functions of a semi-public character are suggested, but that the citizens will show their loyalty by enthusiastically entering into the decorative scheme is anticipated.

The committee decides to call in the services of an expert to draw up a suggested scheme of decorations, and steps will be taken to appropriate the necessary amount. Just what the cost would be cannot be accurately figured, but the sum of $10,000 and $15,000 were mentioned. However, it is to be hoped that the citizens will show their loyalty by enthusiastically entering into the decorative scheme is anticipated.

MODERN METHODS

Why not use modern business methods? Housewives should not be deterred by the expense of modern methods. The modern method is really accomplished, and at a cost that is well worth the effort.

THE TRADE CONTROLLED

The wholesale grocers of Canada selling Canadian starches and corn syrups must sell at certain prices fixed by the Canadian manufacturers, and should any wholesaler grocer sell under these fixed prices, and if he brought to the notice of the manufacturer, he is cut off the selling list; and unless he agrees to sell at the manufacturer's fixed prices on starch and corn syrup, he cannot purchase further supplies.
