

Scrofula in the Neck

The following is from Mrs. J. W. Tillbrook, wife of the Mayor of McKeesport, Penn.: "My little boy Willie, now six years old, two years ago had a bunch under one ear which the doctor said was Scrofula. As it continued to grow he finally lanced it and it discharged for some time. We then began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and he improved very rapidly until the discharge stopped. Last winter it broke out again, followed by Erysipelas, with most excellent results and he has had no further trouble. His cure is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has never been very robust, but now seems healthy and daily growing stronger."

ENGLISH ROWERS HUMILIATED.

English rowers are just now very much humiliated, and are looking around for revenge. The cause of this is their defeat in the diamond sculls at Henley, when J. J. Ooms, of Amsterdam, sculler, the Dutchman's victory was so decisive as to leave no chance for the belief that it was a fluke. He beat all his adversaries by nearly a quarter of a mile, rowing through rough and smooth water while the Englishmen were still in the starting line.

The net named G. Macleary, who also distanced all his rivals, and an Irish dory named S. M. Boyd fairly distanced the pick of England's amateur rowers. One incident of the Henley regatta deserves to be recorded. The only American flag on the river floated over a big steam launch on which were Jack MacFadden, of Philadelphia, and his party. The flag was cheered several times in passing through the locks, but at Henley an Englishman in a canoe, who crossed the bow of the launch, called to the skipper:

"You might fly a better flag than that rag, captain."

Eloise Willis and Kate Forsythe were the only members of MacFadden's party on deck.

"Captain," cried Miss Willis, "I'll give you 25 if you'll run that man down."

The skipper was an Englishman, who may not have liked the flag himself, but the offer of £25 agitated his most sensitive emotions. He ran the launch into the cause, founded on and sending its occupants to the bottom of the Thames, a damper and a wiser man. He rose to the surface, and the cable company refuses to transmit his language as he swam ashore with the wreck of his canoe.

The Leander Boat Club's eight, which is practically the winning Oxford crew, won the grand challenge cup at Henley. The Oxonians are very anxious for a race with Yale, and will not go out of training until they hear definitely from the New Haven rowers. Nothing is known of England's intentions. Mr. R. C. Lehman, their coach, stood for Parliament for the Cambridge division, but was defeated. He has taken charge of the crew, and will keep them together for a few days longer, or until he hears something definite from the United States.

THE TURF. Old Jerry, the last surviving son, with one exception (Sweepstakes), of the renowned Rysdyk's Hambletonian, died at Saugerties, N. Y., recently on the premises of Dr. T. S. Dawes, aged 30 years. He was buried with the honor due his rank and venerable horse age. A monument will be erected over his grave. Old Jerry carried the doctor thousands of miles in the practice of his profession, and was a great pet of the village children on account of his gentleness.

CRICKET. A cricket match between Berlin and Guelph played at Guelph Saturday, resulted in a victory for the visitors by 4 runs. Guelph, 52; Berlin, 48.

The cricket match which took place at Woodstock on Monday between Clinton and Woodstock resulted in a victory for Clinton by 5 wickets. Woodstock put together 55 and 51. The visitors were easily disposed of in their first inning for 35, but by steady play in the second run their score up to 73 for 6 wickets, when play was stopped.

THE ORANGEMEN'S DAY.

How It Was Celebrated in the Town of Woodstock.

A Big Train Load of Londoners Witness the Demonstration at Vanistart Park—A Day of Enjoyment for the Participants.

Two hundred and two years ago yesterday was fought the Battle of the Boyne, in which William of Orange, King of England, led the invading forces, and after a desperate struggle succeeded in winning a decisive victory. Regularly as the day rolls around Orangemen, wherever they may exist, celebrate the notable event. Yesterday there were gatherings of the brotherhood at various towns and cities in Western Ontario, and the London lodges went to Woodstock via the C. P. R. The crowd who took advantage of the cheap rate offered was so great that a train of thirteen cars was required to carry them, and the train was completely filled from end to end when it left Thamesford, a large number getting on board at that point.

LONDON'S DONATION.

The Council Grants $500 in Aid of St. John's.

The Money to be Expended in Flour and Oatmeal—A Chance for Charity.

The City Council met yesterday afternoon for a special and a very important session, that of granting aid to the distressed people of St. John's, Newfoundland. Acting Mayor Gartsch, Ald. Meule, Parrell, Yates, Hannah, Judd, Shaw, Dineen and John Heaman, and City Clerk Kingston were present. A note was unable to be present, but sent a note indicating the object of the meeting. Ald. Gartsch explained that other cities had already taken action toward granting relief. A great many had done likewise to sufferers in London after its great fire.

Ald. Hannah—It is our duty to do it. We may experience the same calamity ourselves sometime.

Ald. Yates suggested that 100 barrels of flour and 25 of pork be forwarded.

Ald. Parrell thought that the goods sent should be of local manufacture. He pointed out that St. John's got a large proportion of its provisions from London in the shape of flour.

Ald. Judd moved that the sum of $500 be placed to the credit of Ald. Parrell, Shaw, Meule, John Heaman and Hannah, with directions to purchase and forward suitable provisions as they may judge best.

Carried. A telegram of sympathy containing assurance of support was also sent to the mayor of St. John's.

The above committee afterwards met and decided to expend the money in flour and oatmeal—100 barrels of the former and the balance towards the latter. This was considered the most appropriate gift as the authorities at St. John's have announced that food is the greatest desideratum.

The committee will make arrangements for shipment, and desire to say to the public that any donations which charitably disposed citizens may desire to send will be placed in the car which the city will charter. The date of its departure will be made known.

THE ST. JOHN SUFFERERS.

In Need of Food and Shelter—Liberal Donations on the Way to the Island.

HALIFAX, July 12.—Major E. L. Bond, of Montreal, chief agent for Canada of the British and Foreign Marine Insurance Company, has just arrived from St. John's. He says the things most required by the distressed people were shelter, flour and pork.

The Allan Steamship Company will place the steamer Newfoundland relief committee, at the disposal of the Montreal relief committee. The Newfoundland leaves on Thursday with a cargo of provisions.

The Montreal city finance committee voted $10,000 towards the sufferers.

The Dominion Government, it is announced, will send assistance to the sufferers by the great fire at St. John's, Nfld.

The St. John (N. B.) common council voted $6,000 to the St. John's fire sufferers.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Serious Illness of Sir Daniel Wilson—A Big Orange Parade—Death of Jacob Spence, the Temperance Worker.

TORONTO, July 12.—Sir Daniel Wilson, president of Toronto University, who has been sick for some weeks, is very low this morning.

The Orange demonstration to-day was one of the largest and most enthusiastic in the history of the city. The weather was superb, but the hottest of the season.

The Toronto Board of Trade at a special meeting to-day enthusiastically endorsed the action of the council in its appeal for aid for the St. John's sufferers.

The president announced over $2,500 subscribed in money and large donations of flour, etc.

Jacob Spence, the well-known temperance advocate and speaker, and father of F. S. Spence, died this morning at his residence on Sherbourne street.
