Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—Inability to hit in pinches, and two errors cost the Tigers the first in their series of four games with the Athletics. Two gift runs won for Philadelphia, 2 to 1. Detroit had several fine chances to win. It should have won, for Eddie

Summers was pitching as well as he ever pitched against the Athletics, and the kind of ball he was firing over the rubber would win 99 out of any Even making allowances for the two errors and the runs that resulted from them, the Champions should have walked away with the contest. But they could not hit when they should, and the single that would have put the game on Detroit's side never came. DETROIT UP AGAINST IT.

Victory seemed in Detroit's grasp in the third inning, when Stanage smashed the ball to left for a single. He was forced at second by Summers. The pitcher took second on McIntyre's single to right, and a base on balls to Bush filled the sacks with one man out and Cobb up. After fouling off several balls Cobb made a vicious swing at a high one and missed. With two out and Crawford up there was still a chance, but Sam laid a slow and easy grounder down to Davis, which Harry handled

AGAIN UP TO COBB. Another opportunity to score presented itself in the eighth, and it was again up to Cobb. With two out, Bush doubled to the crowd in left field. Instead of the single that would have scored Bush, Cobb lined into Heit-
