London Southpaw Pitched Masterly Ball, Ottawa Only Getting Two Hits-Bierbauer Scores Winning Run on Wild Peg by Catcher Lage.

only run of the game in the ninth on a wild peg. London won the first game of the critical series with Ottawa today in the presence of a big weekday crowd. Up till the final round, the contest was a bitter duel between Shocker and Steiger, the London southpaw yielding fewer hits, but issuing three passes, two safe blows being made by the Senators, while London collected seven, half of them being scratches. Both pitchers pulled themselves out of some remarkable holes. In Ottawa's seventh, Shaughnessy, first man up, drew four wide ones and pulled a delayed steal that caught Catcher Dunn flatfooted, The London backstop pegged, however, but the ball went to centre field, Shaughnessy reaching third. Bierbauer Scores The Only Run.

In the ninth, Bierbauer, first man up, beat out a swinging bunt with two and two on him. Lamy singled to centre, Bierbauer being held at second. The two base runners then pulled a double steal, Lage making a wierd throw to third, the ball hitting Bierbauer and rolling into left field, Bierbauer easily scoring. Reidy grounded to Smykal, Lamy being held on third, but was later caught at the plate on Mullin's roller to Shocker. Ottawa went out in order in their ninth.

The information that Shamrock IV. would be put into racing trim on her arrival caused some surprise, as the New York Yacht Club a few days ago cabled the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, that in view of the grave conditions in Europe it would not be advisable to race until next year. Yachtsmen here believe that the Shamrock's owner de sired to try her out after her long oyage across the Atlantic to determine whether she had developed any structural weaknesses before laying her up

The cup defenders, Resolute and Vanite, have been dismantled and will be hauled out within a day or two.
