CITY ADVANCED

Inspector J. W. McCallum is daily ealled upon for assistance in the matter of groceries and fuel. Many deserving folks find it necessary to sk temporary assistance.
It is a rare thing, however, to have hose aided come back when they get on their feet and pay for what the city gave them, but such was the inspector's experience on Friday morning.

An elderly man who on two oc-casions had been assisted with groceries and once with coal, called on the inspector and insisted on paying for what he got. He was told it was unusual request.

He persisted. The amount of the bill was figured out. It proved to be between $8 and $10. He paid it. "A very rare occurrence," said Mr.

Toronto, Feb. 10.—With sales exceeding 1,000 shares, Brazilian was easily the center of attraction on the local stock exchange this morning, which, outside of Brazilian, lacked any sensational features. Price changes were again of small import, with Brazilian showing a gain of only ½ point in spite of the god demand and activity. Steamships preferred lost a point at 41. Quebec Railway was unchanged at 22½, and Cement was ¼ lower at 53½. Pressed Metals, a newcomer in the unlisted section, was quite active between 35 and 40, with the higher price prevalling at the close. Bank of Hamilton advanced 1 to 173, and Imperial ½ to 169.
