SMELTERS MAKES NEW HIGH 1563-4

Brazilian Makes Turnover of 2,000 Shares At Montreal.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Oct. 13.—Brazilian Traction was again overwhelmingly the most active issue on the Montreal stock exchange, with Consolidated Smelters also supplying a considerable volume of trading. Both leaders showed strength and advanced to new high levels, while the balance of the list remained comparatively quiet and irregular.

The turnover in Brazilian was nearly 2.000 shares greater than that of the whole day yesterday. After reacting to 79, Brazilian touched the record high of 81½. The close was a quarter under the high, and represented a net advance of 2½ points.

Smelters also displayed great bloy ancy. The stock surged forward to a new high at 156¾. There was a subsequent reaction, and it closed at 152½ a net gain of a quarter. General Electric preferred advanced a point to the new high of 57½, and Royal Banks gained a point to the new high of 57½ and Royal Banks gained a point to the new high of 57½ and Royal Banks gained a point to the new high of 57½ and Royal Banks gained a point to the new high of 57½ and Royal Banks gained a point to the new high of 245.
