Moreover, cases of fraud can be oriminally prosecuted, and are, generally, and justiy, severely dealt with when caught. There is therefore no just reason why a landlord, who has safer security in real estate, than the merchant in movable goods, should have an advantage over the latter in being able, without judge or jury, to seize, the hour his rent is in default, the fleedful household chattels of his tenant. TULLY'S TRIBULATION.

The Misery Money Made for a Resident of St. Joseph.
St. Joseph. Mo., Feb. 18.—Patrick Tully, n express driver, buried $2000 in his cellar a w years ago. Tully was unable to find the noney when he went to look for it, and after consulting a colored fortune-teller he accused his son-in-law, a commercial traveler, of having stolen it. A quarrel ensued and the son-in-law and his wife removed to Kansas City. Mrs. Tully worried herself sick and died three months ago. After the death of his wife Tully lived alone in his house up to a few days ago, when an application was made for a lease. Before leaving the premises the old man concluded to make one more search for the treasure. He did so and found it.

He had dug in the wrong places before. When he found the money and discovered that he had done his children a great injustice, remorse lashed him until he was almost delirious. He sai tyesterday that he would make all amends possible to his daughter and son-in-law, and will implore them to come back to his home where happiness once reigned. He has a comfortable house which he intends giving to his daughter if she and her husband will forgive him. onsulting a colored fortune-teller he accused

Sir John's Fast Drive.

—It is stated upon good authority that after speaking in St. Matthew's Ward, and while being driven at a furious pace to St. Paul's Ward, that Sir John was so greatly fatigued, that had it not been for a refreshing smoke from one of Dobson's General Middleton cigars the audience would have been disappointed. He also states the entire Cabinet are unanimous on one point, that the General Middleton and "Our Brave Boys" brands of cigars are the best in the country and deserve the support of all parties. Manufactured by W. E. Dobson, 159 king-street east, the trade supplied at the factory.
