"Jack," of the 12th line, went to Alvinston one day lately to have a little jollification and do a stroke of business at the same time. After investigating the hotels he endeavored to boom the glazing trade, and ended up by trying to buy out the newspaper for a dollar.

The Alvinston Free Press of last week contained a cut of Councillor Sutton, and the following sketch:—"A. E. Sutton, a prominent farmer who lives on lot 15, concession 13, Brooke, was born in the year 1862, son of Samuel Sutton. As pioneers his parents came from England and settled in Brooke Township, which was at that time a dense wilderness. Here they hewed themselves out a home. Mr. Sutton secured a fairly good education in the public schools of Brooke, and has followed up farming ever since a boy. In 1897 he married Miss Emma Hume. Politically he is a strong supporter of the Conservative party. He has held positions on the school board as trustee and secretary-treasurer. This year Mr. Sutton was elected to the town council and in his firm and candid manner is doing an immense amount of good for the community."

A Strong Endorsement of the De Laval by a Well Known Dairy Authority.

Picton, Ont., Nov. 18, 1910.
THE DE LAVAL SEPARATOR CO.,
New York City.

GENTLEMEN:—When one is connected with a State educational institution in dairy work, he is frequently asked by intending purchasers, "What is the best cream separator to buy?" They are usually given a number of names of the different makes and told to give some of these a trial. Now that I have severed my connection with college work, I am at liberty to express my opinion at will, and while I know you are continually receiving excellent testimonials from users of your machines, still, I wish to express to you the satisfaction it has given me to use De Laval Separators in over twelve years of successful work in both creameries on the farms and in dairy schools. My experience has taught me that you have the best cream separators on the market, and if I were to purchase a new one of any size to-day, it would be a De Laval. Yours very truly,

C. A. PULOW, M.D.
R. E. JOHNSTON, Agent.

The late Roderick MacDonald, of Sarnia, in fact all the Roman Catholic MacDonalds about there, are, according to a recent historical sketch of Lambton County, descendants in a direct line from the MacDonalds who lived in Glencoe, Scotland, and were driven out at the time of the massacre.

The grocery and confectionery business conducted by C. E. Smith & Son, Forest, passed into the hands of the junior member of the firm, Mr. A. O. Smith, on April 1st, who will continue the business under the old firm name.

Dresden electric light plant has a surplus of $1,381.62 for the year 1910 after charging all amounts, such as interest, depreciation, maintenance, salaries, etc. This will in all probability be placed in the bank as a rest fund for increasing the efficiency of the plant.
