Councillor DeWitt explains that the statement he was alleged to have made at the council meeting last week was hardly correct. He had asked Mr. Whitman the elevation of the Crosskill Lake from the lake to the stream which feeds the reservoir, and Mr. Whitman replied that he had not taken it. He did not mean to imply that he had not done the work, but that what he had done amounted to nothing as far as the town was concerned. This was brought on through a question asked by him as to why the bill had not come up before.
