

SCOTT STAMP & COIN CO., Ltd.,

18 East 23rd St.

NEW YORK.

During the past six months we have purchased nearly

$100,000 Worth of Good Stamps, including several collections valued at

$5,000 AND OVER,

and we are now prepared to supply almost every stamp, including the

Rarities of the United States,
British Colonials. Etc.

We are selling these Stamps on the basis of the new prices which will appear in the 56th edition of our catalogue, and it is absolutely sure that the majority of them will advance within the next six months or a year. Collectors would do well to send us their lists of wants, and we feel sure of being able to satisfy them.

THE POSTOFFICE

A Philatelic monthly now in its 6th year, and has done more for the education of stamp collectors than all Philatelic papers. At present the talk of mostly all papers is about the "Comprehensive Catalogue of United States Stamps" which is now being published in THE POSTOFFICE; and if you want to know anything about stamps then you should send your quarter (25 cents) for a yearly subscription. After January 1st, 1896 the subscription will be 50 cents. Sample copy free.

Price list of sets, packets, etc., free.
