AS A FAMILY REMEDY "DYSPEPTICURE" IS FAST BECOMING FAMOUS

The worth of "Dyspepticro" as a cure for Indigestion and Chronic Dyspepsia is now too well known to need any comment

BUT that it gives equally good results in the thousand and one ordinary ills of life is not yet so generally understood,—a single dose of "Dyspepticro" will, in a few minutes, banish the severest headache; for dizziness and nervousness it acts like a charm; sufferers from sleeplessness are strongly urged to try "Dyspepticro," its effects are surprising. For children "Dyspepticro" is a treasure, its quick and pleasant effects in cases of colic, sour stomach, wakefulness, peevishness, etc., etc., are the delight of every mother who gives it. The testimonial of Mr. Robert Burk, Metcalf St. North End, tells the story of "Dyspepticro" as a Family Remedy.

MR. CHARLES K. SHORT,

Dear Sir,—I am one of the hopeful Chronic Dyspeptics, and for the last fifteen years have used everything that was ever advertised, besides trying different doctors, without any sort of good relief till I got a bottle of your "Dyspepticro" about a year ago. It is far ahead of any medicine I ever saw; four small bottles gave me such relief I could eat food I had not dared to touch for years—was troubled very much with sour stomach and could eat only little of the plainest kind of food, but now, thanks to "Dyspepticro," I can eat everything and plenty of it, even to roast beef, (which used to be poison to me,) and by taking a small dose of the medicine after the meal, never feel any bad effects whatever. Have found out that "Dyspepticro" is a sure cure for everything wrong with the stomach; it cured my little girl, last Summer, of a bad attack of diarrhoea when all the usual remedies completely failed.

We always use it for biliousness and headache, and even the baby has been given a few drops of "Dyspepticro" in a teaspoonful of water, since he was two months old, for wind on the stomach, pains or sleeplessness, and it never failed to give the desired relief. "Dyspepticro" is surely a great medicine, and when people know about it they will never be without it.

Yours truly,

R. J. Burk.

GAME NO. 78.

An unpublished game of Paul Morphy.

La Strategie in publishing two games (one of which we translate and give below) remarks:—

"This game and the following are two unpublished games of the immortal Paul Morphy. They were played in 1863 in a series of 15 parties of which the great master won 10 and lost five. Mr. Arnous de Rivieres has given the two games in the Revue des Jeux of which he is chess editor; if he has still any more in his portfolio we hope he will not long delay the publication of these treasures."

Notes by Mr. A. de Rivieres.

Good News!

No one, who is willing to adopt the right course, need be long afflicted with boils, carbuncles, pimples, or other cutaneous eruptions. These are the results of Nature's efforts to expel poisonous and effete matter from the blood, and show plainly that the system is ridding itself through the skin of impurities which it was the legitimate work of the liver and kidneys to remove. To restore these organs to their proper functions, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the medicine required. That no other blood-purifier can compare with it, thousands testify who have gained from the tyranny of depraved blood by the use of this medicine.

"For nine years I was afflicted with a skin disease that did not yield to any remedy until a friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. With the use of this medicine the complaint disappeared. It is my belief that no other blood medicine could have effected so rapid and complete a cure."—Andres D. Garcia, C. Victoria, Tamaulipas, Mexico.

"My face, for years, was covered with pimples and humors, for which I could find no remedy till I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this great blood medicine effected a thorough cure. I confidently recommend it to all suffering from similar troubles."—M. Parker, Concord, Vt.
