

A hospital costing $12,000 has been opened at Summerside, in Prince County, P.E.I.

A hospital will be opened soon at Mud Lake, Hamilton Inlet, Newfoundland. Dr. Wakefield, of the Grenfell Mission, will be in charge.

Extensive improvements will be made to the General Hospital in St. John's, Newfoundland.

At a recent meeting of the Medical Board for New Brunswick the subject of the free distribution of antitoxin was discussed, but no decision was arrived at.

Infectious diseases in St. John, N.B., have declined in number very markedly as compared with a year ago.

In Amherst, N.S., 1,217 school children have been examined and 889 of these have been referred to their physician.

St. John, N.B., last year had 89 deaths from tuberculosis. This is fewer than for the year previous.

The Medical Association of Kentville, N.S., passed a resolution at its meeting urging that the Victoria Hospital be enlarged, and accommodation furnished for tubercular patients.

The Halifax branch of the British Medical Association has ceased to exist, and a new local association has been formed in its place.

---

Western Provinces.

There will be erected in Moose Jaw, Sask., a new hospital, at a cost of $300,000.

In many cities of the western provinces, typhoid fever has been very prevalent. Pouring sewage into the rivers, and then drinking the water is the real cause.

At Lamont (in Alberta, a hospital was opened a short time ago by Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture. The hospital can take care of 20 patients, and cost a little over $10,000.

A new hospital will be erected at Penticton, B.C., in the High River district.

The hospital at Chilliwack, B.C., had a successful year. There was a credit balance of $353.

The new St. Paul's Hospital, now in course of erection at Saskatoon, will be a four-storey building, and afford accommodation for 75 patients. The old hospital will become the nurses' home.

Edson, in Alberta, is discussing the need for a new hospital. The present building has accommodation for only five patients.

Funds are now being collected for a hospital at Ganges, on Salt Spring Island, B.C.