

63321 31023

SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL

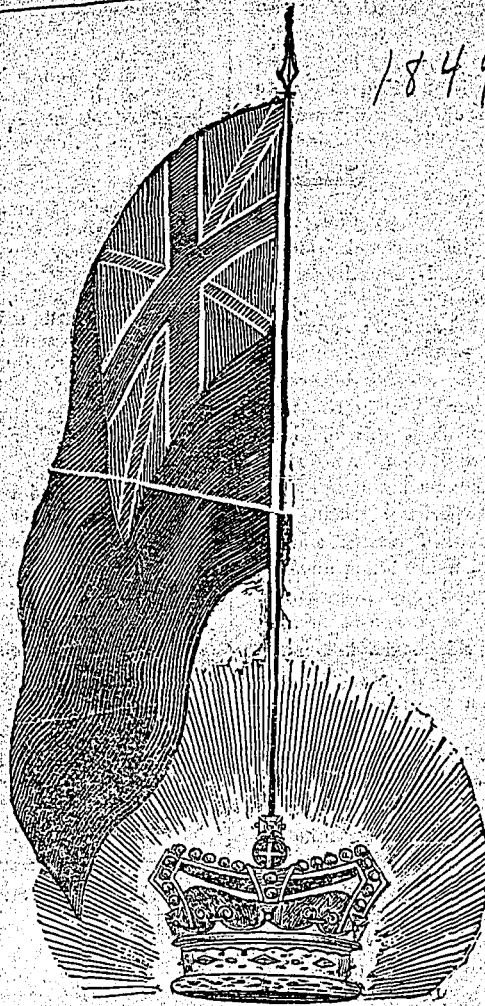

1849

OF

BRITISH

North

America.

Vol. 1.

QUEBEC, 26TH MAY, 1849.

No. 7.

CONTENTS.

- In Drunkenness.*
- Animals of North America—the Skunk.*
- New Works:*
- Withered Hopes—a Dreamer's Tale.*
- Poetry.*
- The Chamber of Mystery.*
- Sketches of distinguished men—General Gough.*
- W. only a Drop—an Irish Story.*
- Advertisements.*

ON DRUNKENNESS.

No vices are so incurable as those which men are apt to glory in. Drunkenness is unfortunately of this number. A drunken man is a greater monster than any that is to be found among all the creatures which God has made; as, indeed, there is no character which appears more despicable and deformed in the eyes of all