

PARAGRAPHIC.

A GOOD CORN SHKLLER FOR 25 CENTS.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy, and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—safe, sure and painless. Sold at druggists.

An Atlanta paper says, "when a literary man suddenly disappears it does not follow that he is dead. Nine times out of ten he is in an asylum." The kind of asylum is not stated.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for Preparing or using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYNS, 149 Power's Block Rochester, N. Y. 25-18-cow

A glass eye has one compensation—as everybody else can see through the device if the wearer can't.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

Sir Isaac Newton earned fame by seeing an apple fall. Some people make money by keeping an apple stand.

LIONS ABOUT.—It is a dangerous thing to trifle with a cold. A dark-key preacher once told his hearers that, "he thanked God that the devil went about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour. He might catch a poor fellow who didn't know that he was near him, but when he heard the roar he could get out of the way, if he didn't he deserved to die." So when one hears the wheeze or cough which tells of the old lion of consumption lurking around, he should fly and get Minard's Liniment, and use it freely on the chest, and take Minard's Honey Balsam internally, and get out of the way of danger. These preparations are well known having been tried for 30 years, and are acknowledged by all who use them to be unsurpassed in their soothing and healing properties.

"Reasons for Being a Churchman."
By the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little
Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me,

Neatly bound in Cloth, 232 pages, Price $1.10 by mail.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
