Trice a Week English Paper. THE EVENING JOURNAL.

THIS paper, the first number of which appeared on the 6th of October, 1851, is published in London, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings, and contains every article of general interest; and importance printed in the LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE of the day of its publication and the day preceding.

Such a mode of selection eminently fits the EVENING JOURNAL for circulation in the United States and the British Colonies, since all who feel an interest in European politics or English news, will find in the leading articles of the DAILY LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE, with the cream of its various intelligence its reports or debates in the English Parliament, and of proceedings in the English Courts of Law, with the still continued and celebrated series of Letters by its Special Correspondents on "Agriculture and the rural population abroad."

The various communications on Church questions, which now form so prominent a feature in the columns of the London Morning Chronicle, including the letters of "D. C. L." are always transferred to the EVENING JOURNAL, rendering the newspaper of peculiar interest to those American churchmen who desire to be informed in reference to that movement of renovation in the English Church, which aims at the more perfect development of her ecclesiastical system, and at the restoration of her synodical action.

The Evening Journal is printed on a large double sheet, containing eight pages, with twenty-four broad and long columns.

The subscription to the EVENING JOURNAL is $1.50 per quarter; $5 half yearly, or $18 for the whole year, payable in advance.
