THE Women's Auxiliary meeting held March After 26th, at 3 p.m., was very well attended. the usual business, interesting papers on the subjects for the day were read. Mrs. Armstrong, corresponding secretary, read the paper on Athabasca, written by Mrs. Pollard, and a well-propared paper on Africa was read by Miss B. Fielding. Miss Baker read a report from the Diocesan Board meeting, which contained two of Miss Smith's letters, written from Japan, where she is laboring as medical missionary; they were bright and hopeful.
