

ARTICLE IV

Export of Benefits

Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, benefits acquired by a person described in sub-paragraph 1.(a), (b), or (c) of Article III under the legislation of one Party, including benefits acquired by virtue of this Agreement, shall not be subject to any reduction, modification, suspension, cancellation or confiscation by reason only of the fact that the beneficiary resides in the territory of the other Party, and they shall be payable in the territory of the other Party.

PART II

PROVISIONS CONCERNING THE APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

ARTICLE V

1. Subject to the following provisions of this Article,
 - (a) an employed person who works in the territory of one Party shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of that Party, and
 - (b) a self-employed person who ordinarily resides in the territory of one Party and who works for his or her own account in the territory of the other Party or in the territories of both Parties shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party.
2. An employed person who is covered under the legislation of one Party and who performs services in the territory of the other Party for the same employer shall, in respect of those services, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party as though those services were performed in its territory. In the case of an assignment, this coverage may not be maintained for more than 24 months without the prior consent of the competent authorities of both Parties.
3. A person who, but for this Article, would be subject to the legislation of both Parties in respect of employment as a member of the crew of a ship shall, in respect of that employment, be subject only to the legislation of Canada if that person ordinarily resides in Canada and only to the legislation of Denmark in any other case.
4. An employed person shall, in respect of the duties of a government employment performed in the territory of the other Party, be subject to the legislation of the latter Party only if that person is a citizen thereof or if he or she ordinarily resides in its territory. In the latter case the person concerned may, however, elect to be subject only to the legislation of the former Party if he or she is a citizen thereof.
5. This Agreement shall not affect the special provisions of the legislation of Denmark which impose conditions for membership in the Labour Market Supplementary Pension (ATP) Scheme for persons who are not Danish citizens.
