

- (e) any other information necessary to justify the issue of a warrant of arrest in the requested state.
3. The requested state shall inform the requesting state when the person claimed has been arrested.
4. The requesting state shall submit the request for extradition within 30 days after the date on which the requested state gives notice of the arrest of the person claimed.
5. If the request for extradition has not been received within the period of 30 days or such further time as a judge of the requested state may direct, the person claimed may be discharged from custody.
6. Discharge of the person claimed under paragraph (5) shall not prevent the initiation of subsequent extradition proceedings if the request for extradition is received after such discharge.

ARTICLE 11

Where requests for extradition of the same person are received from one of the Contracting Parties and one or more other states, the requested state shall have the discretion to determine to which state the person is to be extradited.

ARTICLE 12

1. The requested state shall notify the requesting state as soon as possible of its decision with regard to the request for extradition and, if extradition is granted, shall make the person claimed available to the persons who are authorized by the requesting state to receive him at the time and place agreed between the Contracting Parties.
2. Where the person claimed has been made available in accordance with paragraph (1) but has not been conveyed out of the territory of the requested state within 30 days after the requesting state has received notice that extradition has been granted for such further time as the competent authorities of the requested state may direct, he may be discharged from custody and the requested state may thereafter refuse to extradite him for the same offence.
3. The requested state shall inform the requesting state of the period of time during which the person claimed was in custody for the purpose of extradition.

ARTICLE 13

The requested state may postpone the extradition proceedings or the surrender of the person claimed in order to prosecute him or in order that he may serve a sentence in respect of an offence other than that for which extradition has been requested, and shall so inform the requesting state.
