

3. The recognized private operating agencies, international organizations and scientific or industrial organizations, referred to in subparagraphs c), d) and e) of paragraph 2 above shall declare the class, from among those mentioned in paragraph 4 of Article 13 of the Convention, according to which they will contribute to the extraordinary expenses of the Consultative Committee.

4. The expenses of study groups shall be included in the extraordinary expenses of the next meeting of the Plenary Assembly. However, where meetings of study groups take place more than one year before the date of the next meeting of the Plenary Assembly, the Secretary-General shall render to the administrations, agencies and organizations concerned, interim accounts in respect of the extraordinary expenditure incurred.

5. The administrations, recognized private operation agencies, international organizations and scientific or industrial organizations referred to in paragraph 2 above shall be under an obligation to contribute to the extraordinary expenses as from the date of the close of the preceding meeting of the Plenary Assembly. This obligation shall remain in force until terminated. A notice of termination shall take effect as from the close of the meeting of the Plenary Assembly following the date of reception of such notice, but shall not affect the right to receive all documents pertaining to that meeting of the Plenary Assembly.

6. Each administration, recognized private operating agency, international organization and scientific or industrial organization shall defray the personal expenses of its own participants.

7. However, the personal expenses of the representative of a Consultative Committee incurred as a result of his participation in a meeting in the circumstances envisaged in paragraph 2 of Chapter 19 shall be borne by the Committee which he represents.
