

(3) If the request relates to an accused person it shall be supported by a copy of the warrant of arrest issued by a judge, magistrate or other competent authority of the requesting Party and by such evidence as, according to the law of the requested Party, would justify committal for trial if the offence had been committed within the jurisdiction of the requested Party. Such evidence may include originals or copies of statements or depositions, whether taken in the jurisdiction of the requesting Party or elsewhere, purporting to have been taken on oath or affirmation together with any exhibits referred to therein.

(4) If the request relates to a person already convicted, it shall be supported by a certificate of conviction and:

(a) if the person has not been sentenced, a certificate or statement to that effect by the appropriate court and a copy of the warrant of arrest; or

(b) if the person has been sentenced, a certificate or statement that the sentence is enforceable and indicating how much of the sentence has still to be served.

(5) Documents supporting a request for surrender shall be admitted in evidence as proof of the facts contained therein if duly authenticated. Documents are duly authenticated if they purport to be:

(a) signed or certified by a judge, magistrate or an official of the requesting Party; and

(b) sealed with the official seal of a competent authority of the requesting Party.
