

ARTICLE 11

Conversion of Sentence

1. In the case of conversion of sentence, the procedures provided for by the law of the receiving State shall apply. When converting the sentence, the competent authority:
  - (a) shall be bound by the findings as to the facts in so far as they appear explicitly or implicitly from the judgement imposed in the sentencing State;
  - (b) may not convert a sanction involving deprivation of liberty to a pecuniary sanction;
  - (c) shall deduct the full period of deprivation of liberty served by the sentenced person; and
  - (d) shall not aggravate the penal position of the sentenced person and shall not be bound by any minimum that the law of the receiving State may provide for the offence or offences committed.
2. If the conversion procedure takes place after the transfer of the sentenced person, the receiving State shall keep that person in custody or otherwise ensure that person's presence in the receiving State pending the outcome of that procedure.
3. The receiving State shall inform the transferring State of its intent to convert a sentence and the results of the conversion.

ARTICLE 12

Pardon, Amnesty, Commutation

Unless the transferring and the receiving States agree otherwise, the transferring State alone may grant pardon, amnesty, or commutation of the sentence in accordance with its constitution or other laws.

ARTICLE 13

Review of Judgement

The transferring State alone shall have the right to decide on any application for review of the judgement.

Termination of Enforcement

The receiving State shall terminate enforcement of the sentence as soon as it is informed by the transferring State of any decision or measure as a result of which the sentence ceases to be enforceable.
