

c) U.N. General Assembly Resolutions	45
i. Resolution on Friendly Relations Between States (1970)	45
ii. Resolution on the Definition of Aggression (1975)	46
d) Other International Texts	47
i. Stockholm Declaration (1972)	47
ii. Treaty Between the U.S.A. and U.S.S.R. on the Limitation of Anti-Ballistic Missile Systems (1972)	48

2. International Space Law 53

a) U.N. General Assembly Resolutions Applicable to Outer Space	53
b) Treaties Governing Outer Space Activities	62
i. Outer Space Treaty (1967)	62
ii. Rescue and Return Agreement (1968)	71
iii. Registration Convention (1975)	72
iv. Moon Treaty (1979)	75
v. International Telecommunication Convention (1973)	80
c) Consideration of Specific Terms in Space Law	82
d) Use of Military Personnel in Outer Space Activities	111
e) The Question of the Definition and/or of the Delimitation of Outer Space	114
f) International Law and Remote Sensing	135
g) Legal Aspects of Remote Sensing with Respect to Military Uses (Reconnaissance Satellites)	168
h) International Law and Anti-Satellites	182

PART III. THE USE OF SPACECRAFT FOR MONITORING ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT AGREEMENTS

1. Introduction	199
2. International Law and Satellite Monitoring	200
a) The U.N. Charter and Space Treaties	200
b) The Role of the United Nations	201
c) The Role of the Disarmament Commission and the Committee on Disarmament	205