

- (b) a government of a third country, for the purposes of verifying identity or establishing the provenance of identity documents, in connection with re-documentation or return of an individual to that country. However, the Parties shall make best efforts to ensure that the exchange, use or disclosure of Information:
- (i) could not cause the Information to become known to any government, authority or person of a third country from which the subject of the Information is seeking or has been granted protection under the 1951 Refugee Convention, the 1967 Protocol, the Convention against Torture, or under either Party's domestic laws implementing the relevant Conventions or Protocol;
 - (ii) does not occur in circumstances where, by virtue of that government, authority or person becoming aware of such Information, the subject of the Information may become eligible for the protections set out in paragraph 4(b)(i) above;
 - (iii) does not occur if, as a result of such exchange, use or disclosure, the subject of the Information or their family members could be placed at risk of refoulement, or another type of harm contemplated under the 1951 Convention, the 1967 Protocol, or the Convention against Torture.

5. In order to prevent the unauthorized disclosure, copying, use, or modification of Information exchanged under this Agreement, each Party shall restrict access to that Information to its government agencies and individuals authorized to be responsible for pursuing the purposes set out in Article 2, paragraph 2. Each Party shall use recognized security mechanisms such as passwords, encryption, or other reasonable safeguards to prevent unauthorized access.

6. Each Party shall promptly notify, by telephone or in writing (including electronic mail), the other Party, within 48 hours after becoming aware of any accidental or unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification or disposal of Information exchanged under this Agreement and shall furnish necessary details of the accidental or unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification or disposal of that Information.
