AIR INDIA DISASTER

The Right Honourable Joe Clark, Secretary of State for External Affairs, provided further details today concerning arrangements that his Department has made to assist relatives of victims of the Air India disaster. The Department has established a task force to coordinate the provision of services to families, and will be keeping them informed of developments concerning the identification and return of the bodies of the victims. Mr. Clark asked that family members who want to contact the Department for information telephone his officials any time of the day or night, collect, at (613) 993-4343, (613) 995-8868, (613) 992-3716.
