

Adjournment Debate

subsidies they granted. The hon. member referred to the dairy production. I might in turn mention subsidies on the price of bread, subsidies granted under the welfare program, the old age security pensions, the family allowance plan and the escalation of pensions. Those are all programs that the government put forward, precisely to enable the people who live on fixed incomes to fight with some success against the problem of the rising cost of living.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.20 p.m.
