Mr. Paproski: Mr. Speaker, again I must bring to the attention of the House that my questions on CIDA, which have been on the order paper since February, were to be answered one or two at a time. What has the government to hide? Surely the government has a complete file on this matter. I should like to know what the criteria are in respect of some of these questions. There must be a reason for the government's not answering at least one or two questions a week.
