

hospitals or other places of treatment (b) in this regard, does the federal government make any distinction between cases requiring urgent or emergency medical assistance and those involving medical examination or consultation (c) if such a distinction is made, upon what grounds?

2. (a) In what instances, if any, are Indian residents of the Eskasoni Reserve in Nova Scotia entitled to federal assistance in connection with transportation to hospitals or other treatment centres and to what degree of assistance (b) in respect of the above, are sick or injured Indians of the Eskasoni Reserve limited as to the hospitals or other treatment centres they may go to for medical assistance and, if so, what are they and where are they located (c) are Indian residents of the Whycocomagh Reserve, Inverness County, Nova Scotia, in the same position as those of the Eskasoni Reserve in regard to assisted transportation of the sick or injured (d) to what hospitals or other centres of medical treatment are Indian residents of the Whycocomagh Reserve directed when medical assistance is required that is not available on the reserve (e) were Indian residents of the Whycocomagh Reserve ever consulted, or was the Band Council consulted, as to their preference in regard to hospitals or other treatment centres before being directed by the government to such places (f) was St. Mary's Hospital, Inverness, excluded from the list of hospitals and other treatment centres to which Indians of the Whycocomagh Reserve were directed by the government (g) if so, why, and upon what date was such direction effective?

No. 931—Mr. Reid—December 2

1. Does the CBC employ "freelance broadcasters" and, if so, what are their terms of reference and by what guide-lines are they governed?

2. Did the CBC employ Jeremy Akerman during 1968 as a "freelance broadcaster" and, if so, during what months was he employed, and what was he paid through wages, commissions, fees, etc., per month during his employment?

3. What was the specific nature of his work for the CBC, and on what programmes, if any, did his material appear?

No. 932—Mr. Skoberg—December 2

1. How many corporations have filed returns for each year since the passage of the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?

2. How many Labour Unions have filed returns for each year since the passage of the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?

3. How many corporations have not filed returns under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?

4. How many Labour Unions have not filed returns under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?

5. How many Corporations have been penalized under Section 6(1) of the Act, for failing to file returns?

6. How many Labour Unions have been penalized under Section 11(1) of the Act, for failing to file returns?

7. What is the total number of Local Unions for which returns must be filed by their parent organization?