

McGILL UNIVERSITY

MONTREAL

FACULTY OF ARTS
OFFICE OF THE DEAN

January 15, 1925.

Col. W. Bovey,
Secretary to the Principal,
McGill University.

My dear Bovey,

Referring to your note of the 13th inst., I quite agree that it would be premature to publish in the Daily any of the practical suggestions in my letter to friend Frind to which you refer. What I meant to suggest in my note to you was that possibly some of the general sentiment and theme of the article might be worth publication. Indeed what I really did mean to suggest was that I did not see any reason why if any of us had any ideas on University matters we should not use the Daily as a fit organ for publication. After all, the students are the only class in the community seriously interested in what we may be thinking about in the University.

Yours very truly,

Ira A. MacKay
Acting Dean
