and Vice Chancellor.

into subjects of special interest. It is hardly necessary to say that the Department presents unique opportunities to students of Chinese nationality who desire to use the library facilities under the direction of so noted a scholar as Dr. Kiang Kang-hu, and at the same time to acquaint themselves with western culture and commerce; as also to Japanese students who can pursue their studies in "classics" while acquiring a knowledge of the Occident.

We are most anxious that the Department and the Library be utilized to the fullest extent and it is only through co-operation, the spreading of information through educational channels, and the help of such bodies as yours that they can reach their maximum value in the cause of international understanding.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
