ANSLEY GARDENS

In acquiring this beautifully situated property in the North end of the City, we had in mind the requirements of home seekers who desire an exclusive district where building lots could be had at reasonable figures and on reasonable terms. In the convenient districts of Rosedale and Avenue Road Hill, nothing can be had at prices less than about $125 to $150 per foot. Ansless Gardens both from its situation and the general lay out of the property is more desirable and at prices from $65 to $75 per foot. A large number of lots have already been taken up. Let us show you the property. It will appeal to you on its merits.
